Bill Sent To Congress

Food Price Boosts Seen With Johnson Farm Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration today proposed legislation designed to cut federal farm spending more than $200 million a year. But retail prices of bread and other foods probably would be pushed up $300 million or more a year.

The extra $100 million in food costs would go toward increasing farm income. In effect, the changes would shift part of the cost of farm programs from the government to consumers.

Savings to the government would come from a major change in the wheat subsidy program and modifications in rice supports and a cropland reduction program, all outlined in a farm bill sent to Congress.

Foods which would be expected to rise in price include bread, bakery products, flour, other wheat products and rice.

Present government farm price and income stabilization programs cost more than $3 billion a year. The net farm income last year was about $12.6 billion.

Along with wheat, the farm bill proposed a two-year extension of the feed grains program and a four-year extension of the wool stabilization program, both with some changes; a sharp modification in the rice support program; a cropland retirement system offering rental payments for land taken out of surplus crops and authority for farmers to sell, lease or otherwise transfer acreage planting allotments.

The measure contained no recommendations for either the cotton program or for creation of an emergency food reserve, both of which Johnson had mentioned in a special farm message on Feb. 4.

Administration officials said cotton wasn't included because no agreement has been reached on possible improvements. The food reserve plan still is being studied.

The wheat program, which would cover two years, would work this way:

Wheat grown for domestic food use would be supported at the parity price goal of federal farm programs, which, in the case of this grain, is about $2.50 a bushel. Under the present program domestically consumed wheat is supported at $2.

As in the case now, all wheat grown by farmers complying with the program by holding down acreages would be eligible for price supports at about $1.25 a bushel, the same as at present.

The millers would have to pay $1.25 a bushel on all wheat milled for domestic consumption compared with 75 cents now. Money paid by millers through purchase of marketing certificates would go to farmers complying with the program on the basis of their share of the domestic food wheat market of about 500 million bushels.

This would mean that wheat for domestic food use would cost millers at least 50 cents a bushel more than at present. They would be expected to pass this cost on to consumers in the form of higher prices for flour, bread and other wheat food products.

The $1.25 wheat support would be at or near the world market price — a fact that would permit

Rescuers Hunt 4 Caught In North Arkansas Cave

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Ark. (AP)—A team of Navy divers from Washington and two professional divers from Louisiana went into nearby Rowland Cave today searching for four spelunkers trapped there over the weekend.

They expected to find the explorers alive because of a message received by way of a string of flickering lights Sunday night.

The Navy men flew in from Washington. The Louisianians—Tom Kleas and Jim Springer of Morgan City—were vacationing in Oklahoma and drove here when they heard of the lost men.

The rescuers went into the cave in three rowboats. They faced underwater swims of at least 200 yards and possibly 400 yards before reaching the trapped men.

Skin divers tried and failed Sunday night to reach the men through the cave, a one-time tourist attraction.

The four men entered the cave early Saturday night—Hugh Shell, 46, of Batesville, Ark., a veteran spelunker, and three college students, Mike Hill, Steve Wilson and Hogan Bledsoe.

Rescue workers said lights outside the cave, at the end of a line reaching 900 feet inside, blinked in a distinct S-O-S signal several times—an eerie but hopeful sight in the nightlong vigil.

The rescue workers took the signals as a sign of hope that the four trapped men were safe above the water level in one of the rooms off the main tunnel.

The string of bare light bulbs was installed in the outer reaches of the cave to give interior lighting and enhance the tourist value of the cave.

The lights are hooked up in

U.S. Doubts China Plans Intervention

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Despite North Viet Nam's successes in downing American planes, officials in Saigon do not believe the Russians or Chinese Communists have entered the war in appreciable numbers or with important new equipment.

The most spectacular Communist success came Sunday when a dozen North Vietnamese MIG jet fighters downed two speedy U.S. Air Force F105 jet bombers.

On nearly all of the 17 U.S. or South Vietnamese raids since Feb. 7 at least one plane has been downed. In at least one raid, as many as six planes were downed.

U.S. officials feel the Communist successes have not been due so much to modern Communist equipment as they have to the tactics the American and South Vietnamese planes have had to use.

The raids have been limited to

Reds Block Berlin Road For 3 Hours

MIG's Harass Air Corridors As East Germans Defy West

BERLIN (AP) — East German Communists, defying Western access rights to West Berlin, closed the Berlin autobahn for more than 3½ hours today and MIG jet fighters flew across the air corridors leading to the divided city.

The Communists claimed their actions were necessary because of East German-Soviet military maneuvers. Westerners believed they were in retaliation for West Germany's plans to hold a session of Parliament in West Berlin Wednesday to underline the West's contention that West Berlin is part of West Germany.

It was the first time in 16 years that the Communist completely halted all automobile traffic moving to and from Berlin over the 110-mile highway through East Germany. Secondary roads were open, but some delays were reported.

The steel barriers at Berlin and Helmsdaedt, on the West German frontier, went down at 9:30 a.m. Armed Communist guards refused Germans, as well as Allied travelers, the right to cross East Germany. The barriers were lifted again at 1 p.m. in Berlin and at 2 p.m. at Helmsdaedt.

In the air, Allied radar screens picked up one MIG fighter over a U.S. Air Force Convair transport flying the air corridor to Berlin.

Another MIG buzzed Tegel Airport in the French sector of Berlin, coming down to 300 feet to flash over the runway of the airfield used by Western planes.

The Communists originally indicated that the closure of the autobahn would last until 4 p.m. The fact that the highway was reopened earlier took some Westerners by surprise. Shortly before, West Berlin had been

Youths Find 3 Mutilated In Michigan

WATERVLIET, Mich. (AP)—The mutilated bodies of a girl and two women were found Sunday in an orchard area of this southeast Michigan community.

The victims were Diane Carter, 7, Amelia Boyer, 60, and Mary Esther Jones, 37. All lived within 10 blocks of each other in Benton Harbor and neighboring Benton Township some 10 miles west of here.

The bodies were discovered in a small grove of scotch pine trees at the edge of an apple orchard owned by Henry Baier.

The discovery was made by young boys who were bicycling along a dirt road.

Investigators said the girl, daughter of Verbina Carter, apparently had been strangled by a stocking twisted around her

District Sonic Booms Seen This Afternoon

Sonic booms may be heard in the Tri-State District this afternoon at 2:45 and 3:30 as B-58 Hustler bombers fly supersonic missions, the Air Force announced.

Part of a Strategic Air Command exercise, the planes will fly faster than sound at altitudes above 35,000 feet. The sporadic flights over the area will continue through June 10. Infrequent flights may be scheduled between 7 a. m. and 10 p. m. if an operational need arises, the Air Force said.

66 U.S. Planes Hammer North Viet Nam Targets

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Sixty-six U.S. Navy and Air Force planes attacked targets in North Viet Nam today. A U.S. spokesman said one Air Force plane was downed by Communist groundfire, and the pilot was recovered.

No enemy aircraft were reported sighted. Communist MIG fighters shot down two U.S. supersonic jets Sunday in the first air clash of the Viet Nam war and got away in the haze.

The Navy raid, launched from the carrier Coral Sea, was against the Vinh Linh early warning radar installation just north of the 17th Parallel border, a U.S. spokesman said.

Thirty Skyraider, Skyhawk and Skywarrior planes hit the target with 25 tons of general-purpose bombs from 250 to 1,000 pounds in size. They also used napalm.

The strike planes were supported by about 20 Crusaders and Phantom fighters flying flak-suppression and interceptor missions.

A U.S. spokesman said the target "was heavily damaged." He said the weather was clear, visibility good and no anti-aircraft fire was encountered.

A flight of 16 U.S. Air Force jets struck rail lines and highways in North Viet Nam today, blowing up at least one train. Red groundfire was reported "moderate."

Over 20 Killed

Death Toll Rises In Greek Quake

ATHENS, Greece, (AP)—A violent earthquake struck the center of the Peloponnese Peninsula today, killing at least 20 persons and injuring 200. Police said the final death toll might go as high as 30.

The victims were in a score of villages in the Megalopolis area 100 miles southwest of Athens. They were caught in the wreckage of collapsing houses as they slept.

Fifty of the injured were in serious condition. Thousands wandered dazed through the ruins.

Five of the worst hit villages

A U.S. spokesman said an F105 Thunderchief was shot down, but the pilot was recovered.

He said 10 F105 strike planes using rockets and cannon ranged over Routes 7 and 8 about 120 miles south of the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi. Six other jets flew cover and took photographs.

One diesel train exploded during the 30-minute raid, and another locomotive and two trucks were left in flames.

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor returned from policy talks in Washington and hinted that the United States will broaden its role in the fight against the Communists.

Taylor told an airport news conference that there was no sign that the North Vietnamese regime wants peace talks at this time.

"I believe it should be clear to friend and foe alike," he said, "that our commitment here is irrevocable and I will be discussing with Prime Minister (Phan Huy) Quat and other members of his government additional ways which our common effort can be strengthened during the weeks ahead."

A U.S. crew chief on an armed helicopter was killed when the aircraft crashed in South Viet Nam's central highlands.

The helicopter apparently lost power, skidded 60 yards when it hit the ground and caught fire, a U.S. spokesman said.

In addition to the two U.S. jets shot down by the Communist MIGs Sunday, U.S. officials in Saigon said heavy Red ground-fire downed a number of other aircraft that made the 60-plane attack on a strategic bridge 65 miles south of Hanoi.

Officials did not disclose the total number of planes lost because rescue efforts were still going on.

A Communist Chinese dispatch claimed 37 U.S. and South Vietnamese planes were brought down, but it made no mention of the MIGs.

Both American planes hit by the MIGs crashed into the sea. The body of one pilot was picked up by rescue ships.

Maj. Gen. Joseph H. Moore, U.S. Air Force commander in South Viet Nam, said the MIGs bearing North Vietnamese markings attacked in three waves while the U.S. jets were pounding the 600-foot suspension bridge and power station at Thanh Hoa.

Despite the attacks, Moore said, the Americans continued plastering the bridge for 45 minutes, rendering it unusable. The power plant was reported about 75 per cent destroyed.

While the raid went on, 36 South Vietnamese planes hit the

Negroes Hold Selma Voter Signup Drive

Small Groups Line Up To Take Tests For Registrations

SELMA, Ala. (AP)—Small groups of Negroes lined up today to take voter tests here and at Camden in neighboring Wilcox County where a registrar reported that a high percentage of Negro applicants had qualified.

Opening the 12th week of a voter drive in this Alabama area, about 60 Negroes showed up at the Dallas County Courthouse here; about 25 stood in line at Camden.

Chairman Al Wall of the Wilcox Registrar Board said that 42 of the last 56 Negro applicants had been registered. Until this year, Wilcox county had no Negro voters although Negroes make up 78 per cent of the population.

This is the first registration day since a 50-mile trek from here to Montgomery was completed.

Intruders Take Cash In Calcutta Grocery

Burglars escaped with an undetermined amount in cash and some merchandise in an entry Sunday night or early today at Billingsley's Foodland Market in Calcutta.

William G. Billingsley, the proprietor, said the amount of missing money has not been determined, but he said it was not large. The intruders rifled cash registers of money left overnight for the start of business today, he explained. The loss in merchandise will not be known until an inventory is taken, Billingsley said.

The entry was timed between 9 p. m. Sunday and 8 this morning. The intruders forced the front door. The sheriff's department was summoned to investigate.

House Seen Total Loss; Help Sought

Crackle Of Flames Rouses Father Who Awakens 9 Others

A Hammondsville area family of 10 was left homeless late Sunday night when fire destroyed their two-story frame home and all its contents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Carroll of Tar Burner Rd., off of Hollow Rock Rd., and their eight children escaped the blaze, which apparently started in the roof structure.

CARROLL said he heard a noise outside about 11:30 and when he went to investigate he saw slate sliding from the roof. The slate apparently was loosened by the fire.

Carroll managed to rouse the rest of the family from bed and they fled before the blaze spread.

However, there was no chance to summon help, since there was no telephone in the house and the nearest neighbor is over a mile away.

CARROLL is employed at the Patterson Industries Plant in East Liverpool.

Friends and relatives of the family are seeking clothing and furniture donations to help replace the destroyed property.

Extensive Loss Seen After Blaze At Newell

Extensive damage resulted in a blaze at the home of Jack Houghton of Glendale Rd., Newell, Sunday about 3 p. m., the Newell volunteer fire department reported.

Nine men and two trucks responded to the alarm telephoned by a neighbor. No one was at home at the time of the fire, and the cause was undetermined.

The Chester fire department assisted with the water supply. Newell firemen responded to another call Saturday about 9:40 p. m. when a fire was reported in the kiln area of Homer Laughlin China Plant 4 in Newell. Slight damage resulted. The cause was undetermined.

$3,500 Damage Seen In Blaze At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Damage has been estimated at $3,500 in a fire which burned a trailer home Sunday at 1:12 a. m. on Bacon Ave. Ext.

The occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKinney, escaped uninjured. Firemen said the fire was caused by a defective thermostat which allowed an oil heater to overheat.

The loss was estimated at $2,000 to the trailer and $1,500 to the contents.

Both the East Palestine and New Waterford fire departments were called.

East Palestine firemen also extinguished a grass fire Sunday at 3:23 p. m. on E. Taggart St. Ext. It threatened storage tanks of the Puro Co. bulk station. Twenty men responded to the call.

Unity Action Urged

COMO, Italy (AP)—The 18-nation Bilderberg conference wound up its 14th annual meeting Sunday with a call for political unity in Western Europe and an equal role in Atlantic leadership with the United States.

Boy Injured; Another Held

A 15-year-old East End youth remains in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with severe injuries received in a fight Sunday afternoon and his 17-year-old assailant was expected to be arraigned today before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

William Howell, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Howell of Price St. Ext., was admitted to City Hospital about 1 p. m. Sunday with a possible fractured skull and jaw and lacerations of the mouth after he was beaten unconscious while on E. 6th St. near Crook Alley.

City police said the fight climaxed a feud dating back several years.

The 17-year-old, who is married and employed at Waterford Park, was taken to the County Jail at Lisbon yesterday by Police Lt. Kenneth H. Mooney pending a hearing.

The accused fighter reportedly told police he slugged the 15-year-old who insulted him as he walked with his wife on E. 6th St. Police said two boys and two girls witnessed the incident.

The 17-year-old reportedly told officers the East End youth has been calling him names for several years.

Police said they received a call at 1:01 p. m. and found Howell unconscious on the sidewalk. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance, then X-rayed and admitted.

Brothers Given New Assignment

Pfc. Oliver W. Pugh and Navy Airman Charles F. Pugh Jr., sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pugh of Chester Route 1, have been named to new assignments in their respective branches of the service.

Oliver, who visited at home over the weekend after completing a mechanic's course at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., has been assigned to a 13-month tour of duty in Korea.

Charles, stationed aboard the U.S.S. Independence, left today from Oceana, Va., for a two-week readiness test. He is serving as an airman electrician.

Charles is a 1961 graduate of Chester High School and entered the Navy in October of that year. Oliver is a 1964 graduate of Oak Glen High School and entered the Army in October. He completed basic training at Ft. Gordon, Ga.

Legislators Expected At Educators Session

LISBON — State Rep. Clarence Wetzel and State Sen. Edmund Sargus, along with Mrs. Margaret McEniry, home economics supervisor of the State Department of Education, are expected to attend the Columbiana County Chief School Administrators meeting Friday noon at the Wick Hotel.

Mrs. McEniry will talk on the area vocational study that has been made on Columbiana County and Wetzel and Sargus will talk on proposed legislation for betterment of schools. County Supt. James L. McBride preside.

Continuance Granted In Vehicle Theft Case

A hearing for Larry Joe Vance, 21, of 217 W. 2nd St., charged with theft of a pickup truck, was continued today until Tuesday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff at the request of Vance's counsel.

Atty. William S. Foulks requested the continuance because he was unable to be present this morning.

Vance was arrested March 29 at Market St. and Center Alley in a pickup truck owned by Mike Turk, Inc., which allegedly had been stolen from a parking lot at Higgs Inn on old Routes 7 and 30.

Minor Damage Listed In Lisbon Auto Blaze

LISBON — Minor wire damage was reported in a car blaze Sunday at 1:45 p. m. at Lincoln Ave. and W. Lincoln Way.

Firemen said a 1957 sedan owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Frankford, 317 S. Lincoln Ave., and driven by their daughter, Carolyn Frankford, caught fire around the motor.

Police Chief Leo Zahndt, answering the call, turned off the car and put out the fire before firemen arrived. The girl drove the car away after the fire was extinguished.

Auto's Crash Hurts 4 Girls

Three Weirton girls and a fourth from Mingo Junction were injured when their auto went over an embankment on Route 2 near New Cumberland about 1:10 a. m. Sunday, Hancock County sheriff's deputies reported.

Donna Masterlasco, 20, of Mingo Junction, received a possible skull fracture and lacerations of the forehead and hand. She remains in "guarded" condition at City Hospital.

Loretta Wells, 21, of Weirton, the driver, was released after treatment for shock.

Mrs. Darlene Jafarace, 19, of Weirton, received severe contusions across the back of the neck and a bruise to the left side of her head. She was treated at the hospital and released Sunday afternoon.

Janet Russell of Weirton was taken to Weirton General Hospital for a whiplash injury to the neck. She remains in "satisfactory" condition.

Candidates To Attend Republicans' Session

LISBON — All of Lisbon's GOP candidates in the May primary have been invited to the Mid-County Republican Club's meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the party headquarters.

Everyone interested in meeting the candidates is welcome, the club said.

Mrs. Charlotte Carothers is president. A new second vice president will be elected to replace H. F. Maturen, who resigned because he is working in the western part of the state.

City Trucker Uninjured In Fatal Mishap

A truck driven by a 41-year-old city man was involved in a three-truck collision just east of Gary, Ind., this morning in which another Ohio man was fatally injured.

A rig operated by Marx Stone of 1722 Etruria St. went out of control and climbed a railing of a bridge over the Little Calumet River, and toppled off about three-fourths of the way across the bridge.

It was struck by a semi-trailer rig driven by Robert Weiss, 44, of Republic. Weiss' truck overturned on the median and burned, and he was killed, police said.

Another truck driven by Robert Gray, 49, of Girard crashed into the wreckage, but neither he nor Stone was injured.

State police said the trucks, all big steel transports, were total losses. Damage might hit the $100,000 figure, police said. Stone, who drives for the Long Transportation Co. of Toronto, left Sunday for Chicago his family reported.

Family Living Group Will Convene Tuesday

LISBON — The Columbiana County Family Living Study Committee will meet Tuesday from 1:30 to 3 p. m. in the cooperative extension office. The Rev. William Ring will preside. Recommendations for dealing with the problems of families in the county will be the topic. The group has studied the problems of families and what is being done about them.

These recommendations eventually will be printed for any group or agency in the county to use in its program planning, according to Miss Ann Overturf, county extension agent in home economics.

Man, 50, Held In Knife Case

A Lawrenceville man was hospitalized with knife wounds of the throat and his brother-in-law jailed for felonious assault after a domestic fight early today at the home of the victim.

Walter George Adkins, 45, of Chester R. D. 1 was admitted to City Hospital this morning at 2:25 after being cut by his brother-in-law, Arnie Adkins, 50, also of Lawrenceville.

Walter was in "fair" condition with a 6- to 8-inch wound of the chin and a 10-inch gash of the lower neck. Arnie was charged with felonious assault and waived a preliminary hearing this morning before Squire John H. Herron of New Cumberland. He was bound to the Hancock County Grand Jury.

Arnie was being held at the Hancock County Jail at New Cumberland in lieu of $2,500 bond.

Hancock County Sheriff deputies investigated. Authorities said Walter is married to a sister of Arnie.

Walter and his wife apparently had a fight and she was struck by her husband. She then called her brother and informed him of the incident.

Arnie went to the home and in the ensuing argument, he pulled a penknife and cut Walter, authorities said.

the elimination of the present export certificate and export subsidy on wheat moving abroad.

The elimination of these devices would bring an annual saving of around $150 million a year to the government.

Under the present program, exporters must buy export certificates at 30 cents a bushel—returns from which also go to cooperating growers.

With cooperating growers getting 50 cents a bushel more on their share of the wheat used domestically, the government would eliminate the export certificate.

As under the present program, farmers would be free to ignore the program and increase wheat acreage. But they would be ineligible for either price supports or returns from marketing certificates.

The Chamber Has Its 'Week'

National Chamber of Commerce Week, now under way, focuses the spotlight once again on the East Liverpool Area Chamber.

While it's not without its critics, the Chamber continues to perform services important to the area it encompasses.

Its major objectives can be summed up as: Business development, community and area improvement, an informed and participating membership and promotion of the American free enterprise system.

The Chamber has its dedicated members who are doing their best to see that these objectives continue to be advanced.

Chamber services include monthly business bulletins; maintenance of a library of city directories and telephone books from many states as a means of furnishing information on firms and individuals in other cities; information on employment and wages; state and national legislative information; tourist data; city and county maps and a manufacturers' directory.

In other words it performs a multitude of services which are essential to a forward-looking community.

And, fortunately, through an expanded membership over the years that includes business and professional men from varied fields the Chamber has been able to rid itself of the unjustified "special interest" tag that had clung to it for too long.

Some of its major objectives—such as business and industrial development—are tough nuts to crack. But the effort is there. And so long as there is effort beneficial results are certain to follow to some degree.

If the Chamber were not in existence, there would be a noticeable void in an important phase of community programming. It acts as a proper clearing house for many vital functions which otherwise would be lost in the shuffle of indcision and confusion.

Talk It Up!

Two retired potters now taking things easy in Texas are acting as unofficial ambassadors of goodwill for East Liverpool and the immediate area.

A clipping from a Texas newspaper — the McAllen Monitor — discloses that William E. Osborn and Robert Malkin are making the most of their opportunity to boost East Liverpool as "the pottery capital of the world."

While those of us here well realize that such a reference must include the immediate district, we see no great harm in using the city's name as the base for word-of-mouth publicity which could react favorably to the entire pottery industry.

More boosting and less knocking is always in order.

We hope Bill and Bob keep talking up the "pottery capital of the world" and that others do likewise as they travel hither and yow.

On Mountain Manufacturing

President Johnson has been scowled at by the Washington press corps, which includes radio, television, magazine and foreign press reporters as well as domestic newspaper correspondents. The press corps wants more access to the presidential presence.

President Johnson has been doing some scowling of his own in return. Since this is a perennial occurrence between the White House resident and the press, it could stand more discussion than it is given.

The President inadvertently furnished a takeoff point for discussion by reference in a meeting with the press last week. Referring to the controversy over the use of non-lethal gas in South Viet Nam, he said "somebody made a mountain out of a molehill." He said he knew nothing about the decision to use the gas until he learned about it from the press. He defended its use as humane and rather routine.

It is undeniably true that the press did make a mountain out of a molehill. Only the press is in the mountain - manufacturing business. It wasted no time getting to work after it learned that gas had been used in South Viet Nam.

Headlights Only In Ohio

Widespread violation in Ohio of the state law prohibiting use of parking lights on motor vehicles during the darkness period when regular headlights are legally required points up the urgency of a statewide crackdown.

It also makes clear the long-term necessity of uniform traffic codes so autoists moving from one state to another will know what to do.

A spokesman for the Ohio State Highway Patrol declares that parking lights have no purpose on a moving vehicle under any circumstances. They are no use to the driver and of little use to the driver of an oncoming car.

If it is dark enough for lights to be needed at all, regular headlights should be used. This is the logic of the present Ohio law, which went into effect late in 1961. This law completely bars parking lights as substitutes for regular headlights on moving vehicles.

Why, then, do so many Ohio drivers use parking lights in this illegal way?

The answer would seem to be connected with a characteristic of the early auto, whose headlights always were used sparingly because of the inordinate drain they caused on, first, acetylene tanks, later on the electrical supply and always on their own tender filaments.

The most famous of the early cars, the Ford Model T, depended on a generator for headlight current and on kerosene for parking lights and tail lights. These were used like riding lights on a seagoing craft. Then and later, much later, the wise motorist always saved his headlights as much as he could.

They make it look easy but we put a seed in our mouth and tried it — and it isn't easy. You ought to try it. Sort of increases your respect for birds. Chickadees cheat by holding a seed with their claws and battering it with their beaks.

A popular parlor debate nowadays is over who history will remember most prominently — Mohandas Gandhi of India or Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the United States. Rev. King may have the edge because he has received the Nobel peace prize. I could not find Gandhi's name in the list of recipients. But that may be a minor consideration, because I found these forgotten names of Nobel peace prize winners: first on the list, H. Dunant of Switzerland and Fred Passy of France (1901); Klas P. Arnoldson of Sweden and Frederik Bajer of Denmark (1908), and so on up to the more-recent Rev. Dominique Georges Pire of Belgium (1958).

You will have to excuse me now because I have to go and practice cracking sunflower seeds in my mouth without using my hands.

How Are North Viet Reds Reacting?

By TOM LAMBERT
Herald Tribune News Service

What is happening these days in Communist North Viet Nam as American and South Vietnamese planes step up their raids?

Communist diplomats and other Washington sources, most of them either shy of information or secretive about what they know, have few answers.

There are guarded hints that children and some factories in key cities are being evacuated to the hinterland, that work gangs are gouging slit trenches in main streets and hastily building air-raid shelters.

Actually, little is known publicly about what is happening. Small (60,156 sq. mi., about 17 million people) and relatively poor that nation has few Western diplomats or visitors.

From its own statements and broadcasts, however, here is a limited report:

North Viet Nam is on a quasi-warfare basis, with thousands of youths taking para-military training, workers being exhorted to work harder, the long-time rationing system continuing but apparently not being tightened yet, slogans and "movements" proliferating and a "hate America" campaign mounting.

According to North Viet Nam propagandists, the people are all behind their Communist leaders' determination to resist American "aggression."

But one hint of a possible weakening of public morale came in a North Vietnamese report that a Red military unit in Tay Bac (location unspecified and not on any available maps) is teaming with Communist party workers "to motivate the populace in carrying out resolutely and satisfactorily all tasks entrusted by the party and state."

North Viet Nam reports tell the outside world little about the ordinary citizens, although there are occasional stories of how a youth buried to his neck in sand, continued helping beat off an American air raid or how a 17-year-old girl tried to enlist in the army.

Mostly, the North Vietnamese talk of their people in terms of mass rather than individuals, giving few hints of how they are living or behaving.

ONE OF THE MOST notable developments since the American-South Vietnamese raids began in February, is the flowering of movements and slogans.

One of the most frequent cries in North Viet Nam these days apparently is "to hold a plow or hammer in one hand, and a gun in the other." A second prized slogan is "Each Person Works Like Two."

The most widely trumpeted of the movements is the "three-ready" campaign under which youngsters pledge they are "ready to fight, ready to join the army, ready to go anywhere they are needed to fight the enemy."

The army has a "three determination" program — "to serve in the forces for a long time, to fulfill any duty, to go everywhere and fight valiantly."

For the women there is a "three responsibilities" movement — "to take part in production to replace husbands and sons who have gone into the armed forces, to look after the children so the husbands and sons will not worry when fighting, to be ready to fight if necessary."

JOINING THE TREND, the Fourth Military Sector has a program "to heighten vigilance unceasingly, to stand ready to hit back, to shoot down many more American planes."

According to Hanoi Radio, more than 1.08 million youths had tried to join the "three ready" campaign by mid-March, so many they could not be formally enrolled immediately.

"While waiting for enrollment," Hanoi Radio said, "they have been intensively practicing military sports, such as racing with weapons, marching with full military equipment, shooting, anti-aircraft defense, grenade throwing, swimming and so on, along with endeavoring to push up production, work and study."

That schedule should have been easy for youths who had enrolled in the government's "sports training movement" initiated early this month.

Its members were taught "long distance and cross-country running, racing with weapons, long marches with weapons, mountaineering, river crossing, swimming with weapons, diving, shooting, cross-bow shooting, stick fencing, swordsmanship and so forth."

BY COMBINING calls to patriotism and denunciations of the air raids, North Viet Nam leaders extracted promises of harder work on all fronts.

Workers at the Ha Dong railway shops recently promised "to fulfill the plan for the first quarter of this year and to complete ahead of schedule a new locomotive — the second ever made in Viet Nam."

At the same time there has been a succession of thundering anti-American demonstrations by workers, students and intellectuals, many carrying "guns, sticks, spears, knives and other weapons" while they denounced the American-South Vietnamese raiders.

The raiders are condemned as "savage beasts" by Hanoi propagandists, who say the pilots attack schools and hospitals and save their bombs and bullets for women and children.

Red Calling Card

A Federal Invasion Of Public Schools

By RAYMOND MOLEY

The administration-supported omnibus bill on education (H.R. 2362) passed the House on March 26 and probably will be approved by the Senate very soon.

By the time a potential flood of lawsuits reaches the Supreme Court, perhaps in a year or two, there will be just as much confusion about what it means as there was when it was debated in the House.

In judicial practice, the courts rely heavily upon what they call the "intent" of Congress when a bill is passed.

This "intent" is not always indicated by what legislators say in debate, for many people offer many different interpretations of legislation.

VERY FREQUENTLY in Supreme Court opinions there is reference to what is called the "legislative history" of a bill.

Opponents of the education bill realized from the beginning that they had little chance of defeating the bill which emerged from Rep. Adam Clayton Powell's Education and Labor Committee, so they dedicated their efforts to establishing its "legislative history."

Two Republican congressmen, Charles Goodell of New York and Albert H. Quie of Minnesota, attempted, two days before the bill's passage, to establish by persistent questioning of the major sponsors just what the bill was intended to do and what means were designed to reach that end.

The answers they elicited in that debate and the inescapable conclusions that resulted provide the most interesting, not to say alarming, reading that has been printed in the Congressional Record this year.

In sum, the conclusion of Goodell is amply justified: "All right, then we have a nice, clear legislative history to proceed with. Nobody knows what this bill is going to do."

In the first place, the committee's report explaining the bill does not agree with the terms of the bill. Powell confirmed that he wrote the report.

SO IT SEEMS that, what with all his collateral and extramural activities, he lacked time to study and understand the bill.

The bill itself was an omelet composed of eggs contributed by many people. In the mixture there were pieces of bills introduced in earlier years by various congressmen, and bits came from the "progressive" educationists in the U.S. Office of Education.

Some new eggs were broken and put into the pan in the form of amendments in the committee.

The members of the subcommittee in charge, as well as Powell, were utterly confused about the meaning of certain sections of the bill. Under questioning, these sponsors contradicted each other and contradicted themselves.

The bill was created to provide a compromise which would bring to its support not only Catholic members but those who opposed any aid to parochial schools. Apparently, the "compromise" succeeded, for the debacle of earlier years, was avoided.

ON THE BASIS of an analysis of the bill itself and the plain probability of what will happen under the bill's operation, parochial schools will get little or nothing.

There was always the looming question of constitutionality.

For there was not only the Constitution of the United States to be considered, but the constitutions and laws of more than half the states.

An amusing point here was raised by Rep. Quie.

Under one section of the bill certain facilities provided for local public school authorities might be made available to private schools. To avoid calling these classrooms, they would be called "mobile" units, presumably parked outside the private schools. Rep. Quie made the point that the authors of the bill believe that a classroom is constitutional when it has wheels under it and is unconstitutional when it rests upon the ground.

While Title 1 of the bill is intended to aid "educationally deprived" children, the other titles are provisions to thrust federal control into all schools.

Thus, under the crusade to help the poor, a federal bureaucracy will write textbooks for schools. Under Title III there will be a new and completely federally supported and directed system of schools which could bypass state and local schools. These are called "model" or "experimental" schools, but they will provide the beginning of complete federal control in later years.

The bill is in reality a vast federal invasion of all public schools.

In the name of helping the poor, a dangerous invasion by federal authority is imposed upon all primary and secondary education.

There is great confusion about how the poor will be helped but no confusion at all about federal control.

The Vaguest Spring

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON
Spring is the vague time in Washington, that busy-busy period when much is doing and little is finished, but few springs have been vaguer than this.

To begin with, President Johnson has four big proposals pending in Congress: medical care for the aged, federal aid to education, a voting bill to make sure Negroes can go to the polls, and some measure to curb the Ku Klux Klan.

But more vague than anything is the unfinished business in Viet Nam.

Johnson probably never expected to get medical care, aid to education and the voting bill in precisely the form he asked, and he is not likely to since some revisions are inevitable after full House and Senate consideration.

But it seems certain he will get all three in a form still satisfactory to him, and perhaps even more far-reaching than he requested.

ALL OF WHICH is a great tribute to his extraordinary ability to get Congress to see things his way, an ability which involves personal meetings with most of all members of Congress, personal telephone calls and visits from his aides.

If any president was able to get just one of those pieces of legislation through in any one year — say aid to education — it would have been considered a great triumph.

But to get aid to education and medical aid through in this one year will be a dazzling performance.

The crack-down on the Klan is still in its baby stage if only because the House Committee on Un-American Activities is going to investigate the Klan and not much in legislation can be expected until that is finished.

It is in Viet Nam that the country is left guessing and there are no prophets around glibly or confidently predicting the outcome there.

"Stop calling Junior a grind just because he gets all A's on his report card! He's a well-motivated achiever in the college level percentiles!"

Berlin

buzzing with rumors that the U.S. Army was preparing an armed convoy that would challenge the right of the East Germans to close the border.

There was some thought here that the Russians ordered the reopening because they did not want confrontation with the U.S. Army.

The Russians had notified the Western powers that Soviet military aircraft would fly across the air corridors and that certain altitudes could not be used by the three Western airlines that serve West Berlin.

The Soviets said they wanted to use the altitudes from 2,000 to 4,000 feet. Commercial planes normally fly between 6,000 and 7,000 feet, except on their approach to Berlin.

The airlines have experienced such threats in the past and went ahead with their flights. Up to noon there had been no interference with the Western air traffic.

A U.S. military convoy made the road trip from West Berlin to West Germany without interference, but it left the divided city before the East Germans closed the superhighway across East Germany.

A British military spokesman said Soviet soldiers halted three British cars as they tried to drive out of Berlin. They returned to the British checkpoint to await developments.

A British military vehicle was stopped at Helmstedt, the West German end of the autobahn.

Hundreds of automobiles piled up at both ends of the 110-mile highway as the East Germans lowered their steel barriers and said "no" to all travelers.

The Russians and the East Germans said their restrictions were made necessary by Soviet and East German military maneuvers beginning today but the general feeling was that the Communists were striking back against plans for a meeting of the West German Parliament's lower house in West Berlin on Wednesday.

The West German government went ahead with plans for the meeting. As an additional show of defiance, the Bonn government announced a Cabinet meeting would be held in West Berlin the same day. Sources in Bonn said Chancellor Ludwig Erhard would preside.

The East Germans closed the autobahn at 9:30 a.m. and said it would be closed at least until 4 p.m. (10 a.m. EST).

Although civilian traffic was stopped at both ends of the autobahn — the superhighway linking West Berlin and West Germany — Allied military traffic apparently was not affected.

A U.S. Army convoy of 18 vehicles carrying 80 combat infantrymen moved out of West Berlin in the direction of West Germany shortly before the highway was closed.

The U.S. convoy reached West Germany after an uneventful 3½-hour journey through East Germany. Since it left Berlin before the frontiers were closed, it did not directly challenge the closing of the main highway.

The Soviets notified the Western Allies that Soviet military aircraft would be flying at various altitudes through the three air corridors reserved for Western commercial and military planes on flights to and from Berlin.

An Allied spokesman said the Russians declared that because of their flights these altitudes could not be used by Western planes.

Officials of Pan American World Airways, British European Airways and Air France reported that up to midmorning there had been no interference with their planes in the air corridors to Berlin.

West German railway officials at Frankfurt said that train traffic to Berlin was proceeding normally. Informants said Soviet jet fighter activity in the Berlin area has been heavy since Sunday. No aircraft could fly since the four occupation powers and not the East Germans control the air corridors to West Berlin.

West German officials called the ban on the parliamentarians a clear violation of postwar agreements on the access rights to Berlin signed by the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France.

Communist board guards have been harassing land traffic into Berlin for the past four days with detailed checks of travelers' documents and with a deliberate slowdown in the checking procedure.

The East Germans turned back West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt Sunday as he attempted to drive to Berlin. Brandt, leader of West Germany's opposition Socialist party, was returning from a party meeting in the Baltic port of Luebeck. He flew home from Hamburg.

The Soviet Union and East Germany warned in notes to the Western powers that the session — the first in Berlin in seven years — could lead to serious international complications.

There was no immediate reaction from the Allies, who had given West Germany permission to hold the meeting.

The Communists contend that West Berlin is not part of West Germany and therefore the West German Parliament has no right to sit there. The West German says they have as much right to hold sessions in West Berlin as the East German regime has in East Berlin.

The first newspaper to be published in the United States appeared in 1690 in Boston. Published by Benjamin Harris, the newspaper consisted of four pages called, "Public Occurrences Both Foreign and Domestic."

Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery
Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®.

Shaving Test Faked

Court Rules Television Commercial 'Deceived'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today Colgate-Palmolive Co. deceived the public with television commercials using a faked "sandpaper" test of Palmolive shave cream.

Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered the majority decision. Justice John M. Harlan dissented in part, with Justice Potter Stewart joining him.

In the commercials, a surface supposed to represent sandpaper was covered with shaving cream, then shaved clean with a single razor stroke. Actually the demonstration did not use sandpaper, but a simulated mockup of sand and Plexiglass.

Warren said the court upheld a Federal Trade Commission order against the Colgate commercial.

The chief justice noted arguments had been made that the order might be too broad. He said, as to this, that anyone doubtful as to a future course could ask the commission to give them definitive advice.

In the Colgate case, Warren said, the company had produced three different commercials using "the same deceptive practice."

"This we believe gave the commission sufficient basis for believing that the respondents would be inclined to use similar commercials with respect to other products they advertise," Warren said.

"We think it reasonable for the commission to frame its order broadly enough to prevent respondents from engaging in similarly illegal practices in future advertisements."

Harlan, joined by Stewart in dissenting, said he did not agree that the use of mockups by a TV advertiser is, of itself, a deceptive practice. Harlan said, further, that he did not think the record in today's case justified the broad order issued by the commission.

Harlan asserted:

"It seems to me that the proper legal test in cases of this kind concerns not what goes on in the broadcasting studio, but whether what is shown on the television screen is an accurate representation of the advertised product and of the claims made for it."

If Steel Walkout Occurs, Mills Left Will Help Little

CLEVELAND (AP) — It looks as if the steel labor talks will go right down to the May 1 strike deadline, Steel Magazine says.

And in the event of a general steel strike, the metalworking weekly said, users won't be able to count on much help from the 58 producers who will continue to operate.

"They account for only 14.3 per cent of the industry's estimated capacity and have a combined monthly output of about two million ingot tons," Steel said. "They could ship only 1.4 million product tons a month—about 20 per cent of current consumption."

"The companies that will operate during an industry strike fall into three categories:

Water flows frequently through the cave, but usually not deep enough to trouble either spelunker or tourist — "and never this deep before," said a deputy sheriff when a skin diver reported depths of 30 to 35 feet.

When the four spelunkers entered Rowland Cave — a maze of unexplored limestone tunnels in this remote and hilly section of north Arkansas — Saturday, they said they would come out by noon Sunday. The cave was dry then.

The explorers were looking for evidence linking Rowland Cave with Blanchard Springs Cave, a mammoth labyrinth a few miles away.

Sunday noon passed with no sign of the spelunkers. By this time, the water had swept in.

Jim Fields of Silver Springs, a tiny community in the area, tried twice to lead a team of skin divers through the underground stream and reach the stranded men. A tangled safety line stopped him the first time. Stomach cramps got him the second time.

His teammates, lacking Fields' experience, decided to wait for the rescue team from Washington.

President Ends Talks With Canadian Leader

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson returned to the White House by helicopter Sunday night after a weekend visit to Camp David in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains where he conferred with Canada's Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson.

The President conferred for a couple of hours Saturday with Pearson. One subject was the Canadian leader's suggestion that the United States halt temporarily its air strikes against North Viet Nam.

When they met newsmen after the talks, Johnson gave no sign he shared Pearson's view that such a pause might mark a first step toward peace in Viet Nam.

pledged March 25 as a protest of alleged voter discrimination.

The president of the County Voters League, F.D. Reese, told about 350 Negroes at a rally Sunday night: "We must keep on marching until every qualified Negro is registered so that when the next election comes, we will be ready."

Hosea Williams, an aide to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., said in Washington that Selma Negroes "are going to register like flies" if the new voter law is passed by Congress.

There were these other racial developments:

1. At Morganton, N.C., the imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., told about 2,000 people — including some robed klansmen — that "soon we are going to have revolution in this country." He told a Klan rally that the Civil Rights Act was supposed to have halted street demonstrators and moved their grievances to the courts, "but it has not been so."

2. King's wife, Coretta, said at a Detroit dinner that college students across the country will be asked by King to aid voter-registration drives in 120 highly segregated Southern counties.

3. About 500 civil rights workers, protesting alleged racial imbalance in the Boston schools, demonstrated in front of a Boston auditorium where the convention of the National School Boards Association is being held.

4. The leader of the Black Muslims, Elijah Muhammad, invited King to stop seeking the right to vote and join in qualifying Negroes to govern themselves. He said in a radio talk that the right to vote has brought nothing to Negroes in the North.

In Montgomery, Negroes worshipped at the Memorial Presbyterian Church, but were turned away from two other white churches, Trinity Presbyterian and St. James Methodist.

The reward for information about those responsible for a recent bombing and attempted bombings in Birmingham reached $84,000. Gov. George C. Wallace has asked Alabamians to push it over $100,000.

spot tactical bombing of military objectives. There have been no general raids on population centers or industrial complexes.

This means that the enemy targets are small. Attacking planes, many of which are capable of speeds more than twice the speed of sound, must fly slowly to hit their objectives precisely.

It also means that on large raids attacking planes must wait in line to attack targets.

The weather in North Viet Nam is usually bad now, with fairly low cloud cover over objectives most of the time. Attacking planes must come in low and stay low in the target area.

Intelligence men believe the North Vietnamese have only the MIG15s and 17s of Korean War vintage. These are jets equipped only with cannon and capable of flying only a little faster than the speed of sound.

The Red Chinese are known to have some of the newer MIG19s and 21s including some based on Hainan Island, only 80 miles from the site of two of the American raids.

These new MIGs, which would be a match for the American fighters, have not appeared in combat so far.

The older MIGs were flown successfully Sunday by making three hit-and-run strikes on circling American formations. They ran for the protective cover of dense haze as soon as it looked as though the Americans were about to take them on.

"They'll probably continue knocking some of us down," a

U.S. officer said. "That's the price we have to pay because of the tactics of this war. But don't get the idea we are not still masters of the skies."

Driver Sentenced To Jail Despite Plea Of Sickness

"Please, don't do that, your honor," a North Side man pleaded today with Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after being sentenced to five days in jail on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Joseph Eisenhuth, 59, of 509 Marcus St. made the plea as Judge Chertoff handed down the jail term along with a fine of $200 and costs and suspension of his license for 90 days.

Eisenhuth, who had pleaded guilty, explained to the judge that he is a diabetic. Judge Chertoff agreed to give the motorist credit for the time he served in jail from his arrest Friday until he was released on bond Saturday.

Judge Chertoff pointed out to the defendant that he had pleaded guilty and had admitted he had been drinking prior to starting up St. Clair Ave. in his car, which jumped the sidewalk and knocked down 25 feet of wire fence at the First Church of the Nazarene.

"You are only thinking of yourself; I have to think of all the residents of East Liverpool, who certainly have the right to walk on the sidewalk without fear of being hit by a drunken driver," the judge said.

Following brief testimony of Patrolman L. E. Richard, Eisenhuth testified that an approaching car had forced him onto the sidewalk.

"I have been driving since 1920 and never have been involved in an accident or arrested," the defendant said.

Two 19-year-old youths had their licenses suspended for 15 days and were fined $15 and costs each after pleading guilty to charges of speeding 80 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone Sunday night on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

Larry K. Hogue of Salineville R. D. 1 and Joseph Cathell, 1700 Chester Ave., Wellsville, were cited by the State Highway Patrol at 11:20 p. m. yesterday.

Pat Inglese, 944 Township Line Rd., Wellsville, cited by the patrol at 6:10 p. m. yesterday for traveling 75 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone on the same highway, drew a fine of $20 and costs.

Carl J. Amodeo, 93 Railroad St., Chester, drew a fine of $10 and costs for speeding 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on Pennsylvania Ave. He was cited at 1:20 a. m. Saturday by city police.

Kathleen Wedger, 2115 Chester Ave., Wellsville, was fined $5 and costs on a charge of driving an auto without a muffler. She was cited at 11:05 a. m. Saturday on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. by the patrol.

David Allen Baldwin, 26, of 606½ Broadway, Wellsville, forfeited $32.50 bond on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle. The patrol stopped Baldwin on March 30 on W. 8th St. for driving without a tail light. A check showed Baldwin had only one headlight on the truck and no foot or emergency brake, the patrol said.

Clyde D. Shepherd, 19, of Bergholz forfeited a similar bond on a charge of failing to stop in the assured clear distance. He was cited after an accident Friday night on River Rd.

Frank Markley of Cleveland and Steve M. Granchi of New Salem, Pa., forfeited bonds of $17.50 each on charges of speeding Saturday on Route 30.

Markley was cited by the patrol at 5:30 a. m. for traveling 70 in a 50-mile zone and Granchi was stopped at 1:45 p. m. for hitting 80 in a 60-mile zone.

Edward J. Smerek of Girard, cited at 9:42 a. m. today in the Diamond for driving with the expired 1964 license plates on his car, posted a $17.50 bond for a hearing Wednesday.

Clarence Bailey, 2152 Michigan Ave., also is due to appear Wednesday on a charge of driving left of center. He was cited at 4 a. m. today on County Rd. Fmrd ymo-airnagi 24roe D 424 by the patrol.

Due for hearings Friday morning are Darius H. Hoffman, 816 Broadway, Wellsville, and Joseph J. Stajnrach of Carmichaels, Pa., both cited Saturday night by the patrol for speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Hoffman was cited on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. while the Pennsylvania, who was towing another auto, was cited on the Freeway section of Route 30.

Planes

bly were part of 30 such aircraft based at fields near Hanoi.

McConnell, Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and others were in the Pentagon on Sunday reading the cable reports on the incident.

No official would speak out publicly, but their discomfiture was evident from private remarks.

The Defense Department issued an unusual Sunday statement which played down the loss of the two F105s and other craft, and emphasized results of U.S. and South Vietnamese air strikes against three important bridges in North Viet Nam.

The Pentagon said the strikes "inflicted serious damage" by ruining the bridges, which it called "vital links in the North Vietnamese transportation system supporting Communist guerrilla operations in South Viet Nam and Laos."

The vital importance of these bridges to the North Vietnamese was indicated by the heavy anti-aircraft defenses and by the fact that MIG interceptor aircraft were employed for the first time," it added.

The Pentagon statement, unlike official information given out in Saigon, did not mention that the Thanh Hoa bridge had to be hit a second time Sunday because it had been only slightly damaged in an attack the day before.

There had been unconfirmed reports that U.S. bombing accuracy in the attacks into North Viet Nam has been something less than first-rate.

The Thanh Hoa bridge where the F105s were hit is about 76 miles south of Hanoi. The Dong Phung Thung bridge is about 16 miles northeast of Thanh Hoa. The third bridge, near Dong Hoi, is about 50 miles north of the boundary separating North and South Viet Nam.

There were indications that Maj. Gen. Joseph Moore, the Air Force commander in South Viet Nam, would be asked for explanations of the way the Thanh Hoa mission was conducted.

Among other things, Air Force authorities were reported concerned because the two F105s were downed while orbiting over the target area as they prepared for their bomb run, instead of some distance away.

Caught with a heavy bomb load — possibly as much as 13,000 pounds — the F105s reportedly could not maneuver or reach the speeds they are capable of when not so weighted down.

Questions were raised, too, about the combat air patrols — the F100 fighters flying above the bombers with the expressed mission of watching for enemy air attack and defending the bombers from such attack.

Officials were unable to explain why the patrol in this case was caught by surprise. But they said that such cover can never be expected to be air tight.

The U.S. jets were said to be armed with Sidewinder missiles, but only one of these reportedly was fired at the departing MIGs. The Sidewinder seeks out its target by homing in on heat from an enemy plane's engine. It does not require good visibility for a hit.

There was no explanation why more Sidewinders were not fired at the MIGs.

Youth, Man Hurt
As Car Hits Pole

A 21-year-old Chester area man and his passenger, a 17-year-old Midland youth, escaped with comparatively minor injuries Sunday when their auto sheared off a utility pole on Harvey Ave. about 500 feet west of Putnam St., officers said.

Dewey M. McPherson of Chester R. D. 1, the driver, and his passenger, Robert Glover of 2nd St., Midland, were released after treatment and X-rays at Osteopathic Hospital for multiple lacerations, contusions and abrasions.

POLICE SAID McPherson's 1965 model two-door sedan leaped over the curb about 7:22 a. m. yesterday and sheared off the pole at its base. There was heavy damage to the front of the auto, owned by Lake McPherson, also of Chester R. D. 1.

McPherson told Patrolman Orin C. Smith he was traveling west about 25 miles an hour when the car suddenly jumped the curb. The officer commented that the car's rear tires were in "very poor" condition.

McPherson was cited on a reckless driving charge. His hearing in Municipal Court is set tentatively for Thursday.

A LOCAL man was cited after a mishap Saturday at 5:11 p. m. at E. 5th St. and Broadway that damaged two autos.

The collision involved a 1964 two-door sedan driven by Robert W. Mackall, 23, of Lakewood and a 1960 two-door operated by Lawrence D. Beagle, 24, of Shadyside Ave., officers said.

Beagle said he made a left turn off Broadway onto E. 5th St. when Mackall stopped suddenly in front of him. Mackall said he rounded the turn onto E. 5th St. when another auto pulled from a parking spot on the west side of the street and then crossed into his lane of traffic.

HE SAID when he halted his auto was hit from the rear by Beagle's.

There was damage to the rear bumper and quarter panel of the Mackall auto and the entire front of the Beagle car, officers said.

Beagle was cited on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Beagle pleaded guilty when arraigned before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff this morning and was fined $10 and costs.

A mishap at E. 3rd and Market Sts. at 11:52 p. m. Saturday damaged a 1957 car driven by Carl R. Latham, 18, of 815 Township Line Rd., Wellsville, and a 1964 two-door sedan driven by Fred E. Cornell, 43, of Negley R. D. 1, officers said.

LATHAM said Cornell halted for a traffic light and that he stopped in the rear. But his foot slipped off the brake pedal, allowing the Latham car to hit the Cornell vehicle in the rear, officers said.

There was damage to the front bumper of Latham's car and the rear bumper of Cornell's, officers said.

A mishap Saturday on Market St. 40 feet north of 3rd St. damaged a 1961 model station wagon driven by Robert E. Guy, 31, of Calcutta and a 1958 auto driven by Robert Noland, 41, of Ceramic St., officers reported.

NOLAND SAID he was pulling out of a city-owned parking lot at the intersection and thought he had enough clearance to avoid hitting Guy's auto, which was moving south on Market St., officers reported. But Noland's car hit the right front fender of Guy's auto, causing minor damage, police said.

A Pleasant Heights man told police his 1953 four-door sedan was damaged in a hit-skip collision Sunday at 12:15 p. m. on Lisbon St. 900 feet north of W. 9th St.

Graham S. Bigelow, 26, of 1246 Oakwood Ave. reported he was driving south when a northbound 1952 or 1953 model auto crossed the center line and struck his car, damaging both left doors and the left rear fender.

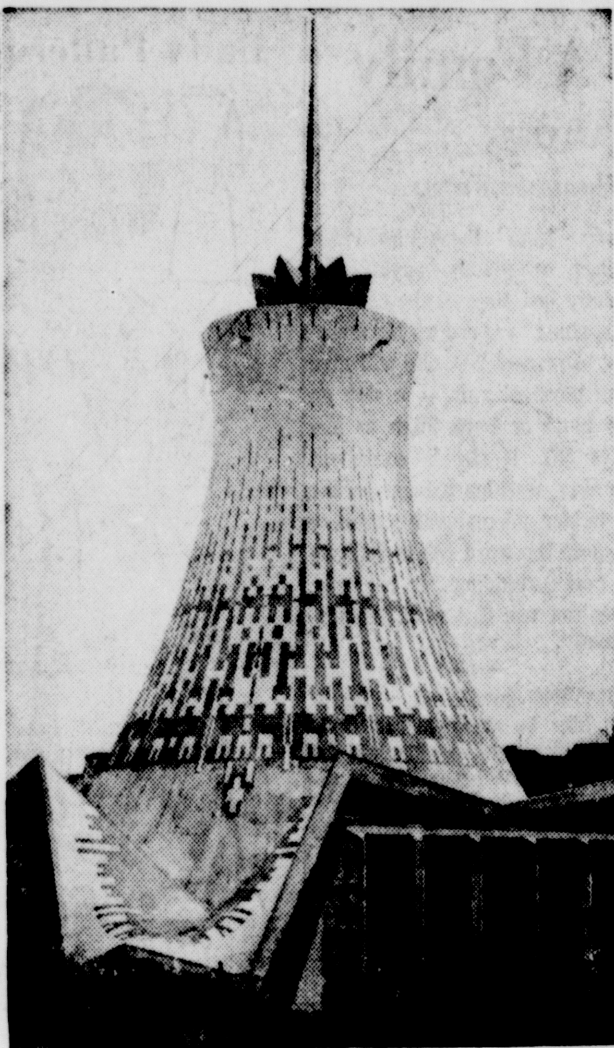

The offending auto stalled, but the driver and another man got it started again and continued upgrade, he said.

Reservist To Compete
In Army Firing Match

Sgt. William Schollenberger, a member of the local Army Reserve unit, will compete in the 2nd Army Firing Matches which opened Sunday at Ft. Meade, Md., and will continue through next Sunday.

He qualified by winning three trophies at the recent XX Army Corps Matches at Ft. Knox, Ky. The sergeant won awards as: A member of the winning team in the infantry trophy match; first place, 300-yard rapid fire, new shooter class, and first place, rapid fire aggregate, new shooter class.

He is a member of Co. A, 7th Battalion, 68th Armor, which will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Poplar Ln. Armory. Classes on "Tank Platoon Formations" will be presented by S.Sgt. Larry Miller and Sgt. Paul Miller.

ABSTRACT TOUCH. One of the newest of the world's current abstract trend in church designs is this cathedral in Algiers.

Some persons think practical jokes for April 1 originated in France in 1564 when Charles IX made the year begin Jan. 1 instead of April 1. Those who objected to the change were given mock New Year's gifts on April 1.

Officers Cite
Young Driver

A Wellsville youth who apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his car was cited for not having an operator's permit after the vehicle ended up in a yard, according to Wellsville police, who investigated the mishap Sunday at 5:40 a. m.

Police said a car driven by Terry Thompson, 18, of 1421 Main St. damaged a utility pole, fire hydrant and a fence at the rear of the home of Lloyd McCune, 1213 Center St.

Thompson told officers he fell asleep. He will receive a hearing Saturday before Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville.

A car driven by Eleanor Riggs of East Liverpool R. D. 3 was hit in the rear by another driven by William R. Bratt, 319 Wells Ave., Wellsville, Sunday at 2:50 p. m. on Main St. at 16th St.

The woman started to slow and Bratt was unable to halt, police said.

Perk up a blue-cheese spread (for crackers) with Worcestershire sauce; the sauce has an affinity for the cheese.

Sacre bleu!

It took those sophisticated French to finally come up with the first worthy replacement for the DC-3.

Those French! They've always been best known here for exports that come in drams, fifths, yards, and bikinis. Yet, now they've come up with one measured in tons and miles—the new NORD 262, first worthy replacement for America's old reliable DC-3.

Anything the DC-3 does, the prop-JET Nord does newer. It gets you there faster, and more comfortably. It's air conditioned. Pressurized. Boards on the level. According to the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board, the NORD 262 is a new aircraft "especially suited" for short haul routes of the type Lake Central flies to 50 mid-central U.S.A. cities. Which is why Lake Central is the first U.S. airline to engage this new French beauty.

Lafayette, we are here! Also Indianapolis, Cleveland, Wheeling, Baltimore, etc., etc., etc.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Where Is That New York Culture?

If New York City is the cultural center of our country, as we constantly are being told it is, why is the television emanating from that fount so steeped in sterility?

Actually, by next fall there will be very little New York television left. ABC will continue to bring Hal Humphrey as "The Jimmy Dean Show" from that cultural oasis, plus "The Patty Duke Show" and "ABC Scope." Now that Miss Duke has turned 18, she may move to Hollywood. ABC had her working in New York to duck the old "Coogan Law" in California which states a minor in movies cannot work over four hours a day.

MICHAEL DANN, the CBS vice president in charge of programs, said recently that since New York is the "cultural center," his network will continue to press for a certain amount of production from there.

A look at next season's CBS schedule, however, does not give Mr. Dann much of a cultural leg to stand on. Ed Sullivan, "What's My Line?", "I've Got a Secret" and "Password" are not likely ever to be cited by future historians as milestones in TV's past.

"Password," in fact, may not be on at all. "The Defenders," "Doctors and Nurses," "The Entertainers," "The Reporter" and "Mr. Broadway" were early cancellations this season at CBS. Forget about culture, Mr. Dann, and just concentrate on getting Jackie Gleason to return from Miami, so you can keep the shop open.

AT NBC the New York end of the network is equally bleak, culturally and numerically. Except for the alternate-weekly "Telephone Hour" and four "Hall of Fame" specials, there is not much to which the network can point with cultural pride, unless "Hullabaloo" turns into a discourse on teen-age mores.

Jack Paar, "International Show Time," "That Was the Week That Was" and Perry Como are leaving NBC and the New York scene to Johnny Carson and Skitch Henderson, whose beard might be classed as an objet d'art.

In the non-entertainment field CBS still can point with pride to its CBS Reports programs, and NBC has Chet Huntley. But that is a sparse cultural diet from a medium based in the "cultural center of our country."

NATURALLY such analysis of the New York TV situation leads to the question of what is so great about the network shows bombarding the airwaves from Hollywood. Nothing, really. We do not expect to win anything but Emmy awards and ratings with "Bonanza" and "Gomer Pyle."

The disappointment over New York's contribution to TV stems from a comparison with that city's output a decade ago. "Theater," "Playhouse," "Robert Montgomery Presents" and "Mr. Peepers" were minor classics when stacked alongside of what generally comes from New York TV circles today.

Cynics may claim that Hollywood with its film factories and the economics of residuals from repeats and syndication finally died in New York's halcyon days of "live" TV. There is even evidence to back such a claim.

But was there a genuine battle between the two cities and their so-called art forms, or did New York capitulate because its heart was no less mercenary than Hollywood's?

IF NEW YORK still is the cultural center it is supposed to be, how did it happen that the producers of "live" TV were unable to at least partly staunch the flow of TV production to Hollywood?

Could it have been because they did not fight hard enough, make a big enough case to convince more enlightened sponsors that there was merit, or even sales, via this route?

It is easy to follow the money and the path of lesser resistance as the writers, producers and directors sitting in Hollywood now under the balm of their residuals can attest.

Just not let them cry so hard about the good old days of New York "live" TV and the money changers running the networks and ad agencies. Those crying the hardest were the ones who held the door open when the exodus to Hollywood began.

Wheeling Steel Sued Over Mill Installation

CLEVELAND (AP)—The H. D. Ferguson Co. here has sued the Wheeling Steel Corp. for $2 million in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court. Ferguson alleges it still has $1.8 million coming on a $5.4 million contract for the installation of an 80-inch hot strip mill and basic oxygen furnace plant at Mingo Junction, Ohio, and that $201,094 is owed by Wheeling Steel on a contract for engineering work on a top blown basic oxygen steel plant at Mingo Junction.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Early Discipline Influences Future

Some parents with one or several small children figure on replacing the furnishings after a few years. These parents say they are letting the youngsters "have a good time," no matter if they scratch up, mutilate or wreck the furniture and leave the living room a shambles most of the time.

By DR. GARRY MYERS

These parents may not curb the youngsters when they often stand upon the polished furniture or jump up and down on the springy chair seats or play games of chase or wrestle and roughhouse in the living room.

To the other extreme there are parents who are always nervous lest a toddler might put his hand against the polished sides of the radio or TV set or strew his toys over the floor. These parents may be in constant fear that a guest might drop in and find things in the room disorderly.

IN BETWEEN these extremes are all sorts of variations. Parents may have a special play place for the youngsters or a corner of the living room to keep and use their playthings. Then the tots may be admitted to the living room only under careful supervision.

But the average home doesn't have a special playroom for the youngsters. When it has, this room may not be near to where the rest of the family is most of the time. The tot dislikes to be alone for long periods. If two or more are together in the special playroom, they may quarrel a great deal or roughhouse.

Perhaps this special play place can be used enjoyably and profitably part of the time. Then there remains the problem of guiding the little child or children in wholesome care and use of things about him wherever he may be in the house.

It's the approximate period between the ages of seven or eight months and fifteen months or two years that is most strategic for the youngster to learn to handle things carefully and to avoid touching, seizing or handling things that he can harm or that can harm him. This is the period when he needs skillful guidance.

AN OCCASIONAL parent may be so clever as to guide him well through persuasive positive suggestions, rarely saying NO. But most parents find that they need to train him during this period to accept NO as final. They might, of course, put everything away except his approved playthings. Or they might keep him in a playpen when they can't be right with him. A compromise is to put away temporarily most of the knick-knacks, leaving one or two within his reach and to train him to avoid them consistently. If the parent wishes to use time enough and patience enough, she can merely intercept him or pull him bodily

School Report Slated

On Ashtabula Survey

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—A report by the Ohio Education Association on conditions of Ashtabula city schools is expected to be made public in May. The OEA ended a three-day investigation Sunday which was requested by the Ashtabula School Board and other local groups. Two school superintendents have resigned and school levies have repeatedly failed during the last four years.

House Eyes TB Bill Vote

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A bill to consolidate Ohio's 21 tuberculosis hospitals into a dozen or less regional hospitals comes up for a vote tonight in the Ohio House.

The measure by Reps. Clara and Bernice MacKenzie, D-Stark also would double the present state subsidy of $2.50 per patient-day for counties using regional hospitals which would be designated by the state health director.

Mrs. Weisenborn said that as of the first of this year, Ohio had 2,569 TB beds but that only 56.9 per cent were in use.

"This bill makes sense. Our present system is wasting manpower, medical skills, and taxes," Mrs. MacKenzie said.

Tonight marks the beginning of the legislature's 12th work week, with action expected Tuesday or Wednesday on two of the three administration appropriation bills.

Ready for a vote in the House is the record $1.4 billion general appropriations measure which will run state operations for the two years beginning July 1.

Senate action could come about the same time on the $888 million highway and highway safety department appropriation. About $31 million of that amount is earmarked for highway safety.

Pending in the House Finance Committee is the $185 million capital improvements bill, along with the sundry claims measure which is being drafted.

These money proposals complete the fiscal package which is the key to adjournment of the session which so far has been relatively unproductive.

It was learned, meanwhile, that the lawmakers probably will receive another major piece of welfare legislation—a proposal that the state take over all public assistance programs.

Republicans sponsoring the measure say its purpose "is to integrate all public assistance in one organization administered by the state of Ohio."

Inspection Scheduled By Newell Cub Scouts

Inspection of Cub Pack 10 at Newell will be held at a meeting April 20, it was announced Friday night at a committee meeting in Newell Jefferson School.

The den with the highest score in the inspection will receive a ribbon. Harley Freeman, chairman, presided at the meeting Friday night. Mrs. Dwight Richards reported that Den 2 visited the Fox Nursing Home in Chester, singing songs and giving each patient a favor.

Plans were made for a bake sale May 1, for which Mrs. Jo Ann Martin will be chairman, and for a rummage sale in August. The next committee meeting will be held May 7.

Thief Takes Change From Vending Device

A thief broke into an East End vending machine early Sunday and removed an unknown amount of change, police reported.

The theft occurred at an automatic car wash facility on Pennsylvania Ave. operated by Frank Potts. Patrolman Jack Strobel discovered the thievery at 1:44 a. m.

Meanwhile, Gene H. Smith of Highland Dr., Calcutta, told officers a vandal damaged his auto by hurling stones while it was parked on old W. 8th St. between 7:45 and 10:25 p. m. Saturday.

There was damage to the hood, rear deck lid and radio antenna and the left front window was broken, Smith reported.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average near normal from Tuesday morning till Sunday morning. Representative normal high and low temperatures are Cleveland 54-33, Columbus 59-37 and Cincinnati 61-41. Turning a little cooler Wednesday but followed by a slow warming trend the remainder of the week. Rain fall will average about three-tenths inch as showers Tuesday and again late Friday and Saturday.

Drama Called 'Mountain Gal'

Westgate Pupils Plan Play Friday

These students will portray some of the characters in the hillbilly play, "Mountain Gal," to be presented by the ninth grade class of Westgate School Friday at 8 p. m. at the auditorium.

Other members of the cast are Donna Salisbury as "Catalpa Lindsay;" Karen Simpson, "Dee-Dee;" Randy Skak, "Henry McKay;" Merle Miller "Arthur Perrin;" and Bill Hopper and Debbie Emmerling, Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon.

Miss Mildred Vorndran and Mrs. Alfred R. Bowen are directing the play, written by B. E. Mitchell and Le Roma Greth.

It revolves around the Lindsay family in the Ozarks. The mother, boasting continually of her two years' education, is a tyrant forcing everyone to live as she wishes.

She almost ruins the romance of Oby, the hired hand, and Sophie, a neighboring "wider." Although she asks her daughter, Catalpa, to do nothing, she works the orphan girl, DeeDee, night and day. The event is open to the public and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Fall Injures Wellsville Man; 17 More Treated At Hospital

A Wellsville man injured in a fall Sunday night was admitted to City Hospital, where 17 other persons were treated over the weekend.

Donald C. Elliott, 60, of Broadway is in "fair" condition today with injuries suffered when he fell down steps at the Eagles Lodge.

Fourteen other persons were treated yesterday. Robert Toothman II, 6, son of Robert Toothman of Calcutta, suffered a laceration of the forehead when he fell from a pony.

Robert Waite, 314 Garfield St., cut his third right finger with a chisel while working at home.

Richard Lee, 17, of 1214 River-view St. injured his right hand while playing basketball.

In a fall at home, Mrs. Anna Conkle, 539 Florida Ave., Chester, fractured her right arm.

Mrs. Anna Rivelles, 1313 Main St., Wellsville, was treated for an injury to her right hand suffered at home.

John M. Marcinko, 689 Lincoln Ave., received lacerations of the thumb when he caught his left hand in a belt sander.

Richard Martin, 7, son of Richard Martin, 744 Avondale St., received abrasions of the left ankle area and a possible fracture when he caught his foot in the spokes of a bicycle.

Danny Bangor, 9, son of William Bangor of Bell School Rd., cut the palm of his left hand on glass at home.

Jerome J. Gilbey, 9, son of Andrew Gilbey of Salem, was bitten on the left hand by a dog.

Lloyd Jones, 12, son of Lawrence Jones of Rogers R. D., was bitten on the right lower leg by a dog.

Kim Sloan, 9, son of Mrs. Juanita Sloan of Irondale, sprained his right ankle in a fall from a tree.

Jerry DeSarro, 10, son of John DeSarro, 1201 Commerce St., Wellsville, fell on a stick, suffering a puncture wound of the right knee.

Mrs. Naomi Cowser, 250 Washington St., injured her right elbow when she slipped and fell while working at the Golden Star Dairyland.

Edward Golden, 16, of 1206 St. George St. injured his right foot while playing basketball.

Three were treated Saturday. Randy Landis, 3, son of Robert Landis, 818 Daisy Ln., cut his head in a fall.

David Chronister, 17-month-old son of Phillip Chronister of R. D. 1, cut his upper lip in a fall.

Nancy Fay Adams, 6, daughter of Kenneth Adams, 639 River Rd., injured her left knee in a fall.

City Firemen Quell Blazes

Firemen at the East End station spent most of Sunday afternoon fighting two grass fires and a combination dump and grass blaze in the same general location.

Firemen spent 25 minutes quelling a grass fire on Maryland Ave. after receiving the call at 1:18 p. m.

They were called to Pennsylvania Ave. and Sylvan St. at 4:40 p. m. on another grass blaze.

The firemen returned to the station shortly before 5 p. m., but were called out again 21 minutes later on a dump and grass fire behind Horace Mann School.

The cause of all three blazes was not determined, firemen said.

The department was called to an apartment building at 6 Thompson Pl. owned by Milton Reese at 1:08 a. m. Sunday when faulty furnace controls allowed a furnace to overheat and set fire to the filters.

The fire was confined to the filters, firemen said, but the smoke spread through the second floor.

A false alarm was turned in from Box 23 at Union and E. 2nd St. at 8:10 p. m. Saturday, firemen said.

Decision Due On Uniting Of 6 Churches

LEXINGTON, Ky., (AP) — Representatives of six Christian denominations gathered today for an anticipated showdown decision on whether to try to form a united church.

"It's a crucial meeting," said the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake of Philadelphia, chief executive of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

After three years of preliminary exploration, the inter-denominational meeting was expected to determine if it has found sufficient basis for moving to the actual planning stage.

"We're coming down to the wire," said the Rev. Dr. Truman Douglass of the United Church of Christ, itself a recent two-way merger which included Congregationalists. "We've got to fish or cut bait."

The denominations involved have about 23 million members. Besides the Presbyterian and United churches, others taking part are the Methodist Church, the Protestant Episcopal Church, the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

Representatives of 16 additional denominations, including most major Protestant and Eastern Orthodox bodies in this country as well as the Roman Catholic Church, are sitting in as observers.

The mood among many delegates was that there has been enough tentative discussion to make clear whether grounds exist for concrete steps toward union. Any decisions about this would be subject to ratification by denominational conventions.

U.S. Orbits Satellite With Atom Device

By RALPH DIGHTON
AP Science Writer

VANDEMBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — A 970 pound satellite which could hold the key to years-long missions in space heads toward a second critical test today.

Sometime during the early morning scientists planned to send a signal turning on a tiny ion engine, prototype of an electronic beam device designed eventually for speeds up to 100,000 miles an hour.

Success of the test is expected to be disclosed later by Gen. Bernard Schriever, head of the Air Force Systems Command.

The satellite, launched Saturday, cleared its first hurdle early Sunday when a small nuclear reactor, called SNAP-10A, achieved full power, generating 580 watts of electricity.

The Atomic Energy Commission said it was the first time a nuclear reactor operated in orbit and called it "a significant advance in this country's space and atomic energy programs."

Plans called for electricity generated by the reactor and stored in a 460-pound bank of batteries to start up the ion engine for a one-hour run.

In a tiny tank about the size of a lemon, the engine carried enough fuel to operate for 300 hours. It was expected to be shut down, however, after one-hour test runs daily over the next three months.

In its 700-mile-high polar orbit, the satellite was expected to stay aloft 3,000 years. The reactor was expected to be turned off in about a year.

The Air Force called the satellite Snapshot, a guarded but obvious reference to the photographic surveillance potential of spacecraft carrying reactors to power complicated television spy systems. The first part of the name comes from the AEC's SNAP program to develop reactors small enough for spacecraft. The initials stand for systems for nuclear auxiliary power.

Reactor-powered ion engines also are envisioned as propulsion systems capable of reaching distant planets beyond the reach of conventionally powered rockets.

Youths Damage Road Equipment With Guns

CLEVELAND (AP)—Several thousand dollars damage to heavy construction equipment being used on Interstate 71 was caused by two 17-year-old youths who went on a shooting rampage in Metropolitan Park at Strongsville, police reported.

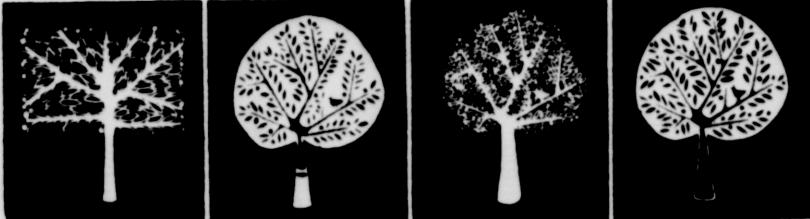

Police said the youths shot up about seven pieces of equipment Sunday afternoon, including earth movers, bulldozers, graders and loaders. Bullets were found in tires, windshields, oil filters, gauges and engines.

Approximately 50 men will be out of work until the machinery is repaired, police said.

OSU School Project Reveals Delinquent Pupils Can Learn

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University sociologists think they have come up with the solution to an age-old classroom problem—how to deal with delinquent boys.

They added three extra ingredients — special curriculum, remedial reading and mutual respects—to the regular classroom schedule of 240 seventh-grade boys considered likely to get into trouble.

Now, nearly two years after the project was begun, researchers have found that problem boys can be interested in learning and often enjoy it, too.

At the same time, the study shows, boys can be handled effectively without resorting to punitive measures.

Dr. Nason E. Hall Jr., assistant professor of sociology at OSU, said participants in the projects were selected at schools in Columbus' high delinquency areas and grouped into special classes.

In addition to the regular classroom material, the project classes are given special curriculum dealing with work, the school, family and law enforcement.

Because the boys often lack motivation to learn, effort is made to supply motivation through material that interests them, Dr. Hall said.

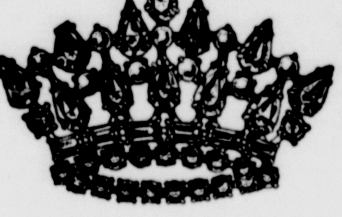

"This commitment led to a broad search for materials and to the utilization of a wide variety of presentation techniques, including films, specially developed stimulus stories, speakers, tapes and plays."

To develop the remedial reading program some 240 paperback novels, biographies and histories were placed in the classrooms for the boys to use. It was noted that H. G. Wells' "The Time Machine" and D. K. Stanford's "The Red Car" were the most popular, so they were adopted as texts from which exercises were developed.

The "mutual respect" principle is based on the premise that the teacher has a right to teach and the student has a right to learn.

2-Way Crash North Of City Injures Man

A city man escaped serious injury when his car struck the rear of a parked vehicle on County Rd. 424 (old Route 30) four-tenths of a mile north of East Liverpool at 1:50 a. m. today.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon and Clarence Bailey, 47, of 2152 Michigan Ave. suffered a bump on the head and complained of a pain in his chest after his 1962 Cadillac hit the rear of a parked 1952 sedan owned by Leonard Hawkins, 503 1/2 Commerce St., Wellsville.

Bailey apparently was traveling too fast to negotiate a curve and lost control, causing his car to slide diagonally across the highway, officers said. His car rammed the rear of the Hawkins' vehicle, which was parked off the left side of the road.

Bailey was cited for driving left of center. He was taken home by a passerby.

Two teen-agers were hospitalized and a third was hurt when their convertible overturned and rolled into a creek at the intersection of Routes 558 and 46 near East Palestine Sunday at 12:15 a. m.

Officers said the driver of the 1946 convertible was Paul Dickey, 18, of Salem R. D. 3. He apparently was traveling at an excessive rate of speed and failed to halt at the T-intersection. He lost control and the convertible overturned and rolled about 75 feet before landing on its top in a small creek.

Jerry Frankfort, 16, of S. Lincoln Ave., Lisbon, a passenger, suffered a back injury and laceration of the right ear. Pete Perry, 18, of Elm St., Leetonia, another passenger, received a laceration of the right elbow and Dickey suffered a severe laceration of the scalp and back and neck injuries. All three were wet and suffered exposure, officers reported.

Dickey and Frankfort were admitted to Salem City Hospital, where Perry was treated. Dickey was cited for reckless operation.

A 1964 station wagon driven by William John McQuinton, 16, of New Waterford R. D. 1 and a 1965 coach driven by Fred W. Carlisle, 24, of Lisbon R. D. 2 were involved in a collision Sunday at 12:25 a. m. on Route 7 about a mile and a half south of Route 46.

Officers said McQuinton pulled from a side road into the path of Carlisle, who swerved but was unable to avoid the collision.

McQuinton was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Nancy Evans of New Waterford, was a passenger in the Carlisle car. All escaped injury.

LONDON (AP) — Prince Philip says there are a lot of things he would like to do, including going to a pub or a local movie, but can't because of his role as husband of Britain's Queen Elizabeth II.

"But on the other hand, I've got a lot of advantages which compensate for it," Philip told a British radio audience Sunday.

LONDON (AP) — Arriving in London Sunday night, Charlie Chaplin and his wife turned a cold shoulder on their eldest son, Michael, 18; his wife, 25-year-old actress Pay Johns, and their child.

Mrs. Chaplin told newsmen her son "should get a job and go to work."

It was learned last week that Michael's family is receiving $28 a week in national assistance, although the elder Chaplin is a multimillionaire.

PARIS (AP) — The Duke and Duchess of Windsor, reconciled with Britain's royal family after 29 years, have arrived in Paris from London on one of Queen Elizabeth's private planes.

They were met in Paris by a British Embassy limousine, which took them to their suburban home. The duke, the former King Edward VIII, recently underwent eye operations.

100 Attend Elks' Installation Rites

About 100 attended a ceremony Sunday night at the Elks Lodge, when James H. Noble of Glenmoor was installed as exalted ruler, succeeding Edward B. Massey.

Eccleston, a member of the local lodge and district deputy in the Southeast Ohio area of Ohio Elks, was assisted in the rite by past exalted rulers as well as representatives of Wellsville Lodge 1040 — George Cornell, exalted ruler, and Paul Todd, secretary.

Guests also were present from Salem Lodge 305 and Rochester Lodge 283. The local lodge will seat the officers of the Rochester lodge at a meeting April 14.

Eccleston told the retiring officers their experience will be valuable and called on them to aid the new officers whenever asked. Massey thanked the members for their support in the past year.

Noble asked the members to co-operate in the program he will outline at the regular meeting Thursday night, when he also will announce committees.

A chicken dinner for Elks and their families preceded the installation.

Ohio Lists 21 Road Deaths On Weekend

By The Associated Press

A rash of multiple-death traffic accidents—with a dozen persons killed in three wrecks—caused Ohio's weekend highway death toll to soar to at least 21.

Fires took an additional seven lives and two Ohioans died in miscellaneous mishaps to bring to at least 30 the number of persons killed accidentally between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

The worst accident of the weekend occurred Saturday night in the head-on collision of two station wagons in which five persons died. The crash, on Interstate 75 near Wapakoneta, took four members of one family and left a fifth member, a 12-year-old boy, in critical condition in Lima Memorial Hospital.

Bar Association Meets, Marking New Court Term

LISBON — A dinner session of the County Bar Association today at noon in the McKinley Room of the VFW Home officially marked the opening of the April term of Common Pleas Court.

Following the dinner, the attorneys moved to the Courthouse for a business session. Atty. Robert A. Kapp, elected in January, assumed the presidency. He succeeds Atty. Ben H. Berman, also of East Liverpool.

The Grand Jury will be seated Tuesday morning by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard. It is scheduled to investigate about 30 cases in a session that may continue through Thursday noon.

The 15-member panel will inspect the County Jail and then return to the Courthouse to begin deliberations.

Ailing Prelate Suffers Relapse, Doctors Say

CHICAGO (AP) — Doctors have ordered Albert Cardinal Meyer returned to tube feeding after the prelate suffered another slight relapse.

A spokesman for Mercy Hospital, where the cardinal underwent brain surgery for a cancerous tumor Feb. 25, said Sunday the Chicago archbishop "is not in a coma, but he does sleep most of the time."

Doctors said Cardinal Meyer suffered a relapse March 26 and went into another decline over the weekend. His condition is aggravated by a persistent swelling in his left leg, which has been attributed to a blood clot.

Ohio G.I. Killed

JUNCTION CITY, Kan. (AP) — Army Spec. 4 Sie Martin, 23, of Warren, Ohio, and another Ft. Riley, Kan., soldier were killed here Saturday when their car collided with a Union Pacific freight train. Martin is survived by his wife, Edith June, and a daughter in Warren.

Julie Or Sophia? Stars Await 'Oscar' Awards

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Will it be Julie Andrews or Sophia Loren tonight — Oscar night?

That seems to be the major item of suspense as Hollywood dresses up for its biggest show — the 37th annual Academy Awards.

When the nominations first were announced six weeks ago, Miss Andrews looked like the odds-on favorite — almost a shoo-in.

But things have changed. Actors, who only nominate their fellow actors and actresses, made Miss Andrews one of the five top actress nominees and excluded Audrey Hepburn, who did the screen version of "My Fair Lady."

Julie, who created the Eliza Doolittle role on Broadway, was overlooked for the movie version. That may have triggered the actors' snub of Miss Hepburn.

But for Oscar itself, all members of the academy vote. "My Fair Lady," in its screenings for the academy membership, drew the biggest crowds in Oscar history. One night 300 persons, including Greer Garson, were turned away. The academy had to run an extra screening.

Talk in the lobby after the screenings made much of Audrey's performance and scores of members asked how she could have been overlooked.

As a result, the Oscar race, often a popularity contest, evolved into a form race. That's where Miss Loren, winner in 1963, entered the picture.

Her "Marriage, Italian Style," second only to "My Fair Lady" in audience turnout, was widely regarded as the classic performance of the five nominees.

The others, besides Miss Andrews ("Mary Poppins") were Debbie Reynolds ("The Unsinkable Molly Brown"); Anne Bancroft ("The Pumpkin Eater"); and Kim Stanley ("Seance on a Wet Afternoon").

Among the men, Rex Harrison is the favorite for his professor Higgins of "My Fair Lady." The other nominees are Richard Burton ("Becket"); Anthony Quinn ("Zorba the Greek"); and Peter Sellers ("Dr. Strangelove").

"My Fair Lady" is rated a shoo-in for best picture, best direction and most of its 12 nominations.

The results will be carried over ABC-TV and radio plus the Armed Forces Radio Service. Showtime is 10 p.m. (EST).

Road Jobs Discussed By Franklin Trustees

SUMMITVILLE — A report on the proposed summer road program was heard at a meeting of the Franklin Township Trustees Saturday afternoon at the Township Hall.

Forrest Thompson, president, reported on a meeting held with county officials to plan the program. Approximately 11 miles of blacktop road will be surface sealed and oil will be applied on six miles of dirt road.

Other road work was discussed. Slag is being hauled for dirt roads, which also are being scraped. The trustees will continue hauling slag. Bills totaling $596 were ordered paid. The next meeting will be April 17.

King Saud's Kin Cited For Drunken Driving

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Fahad Nasser Al Saud, 24, a nephew of King Saud of Saudi Arabia, was booked on suspicion of drunken driving after he was involved in an auto accident, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The University of California at Santa Barbara student was driving alone Sunday when he apparently lost control of his car on a curve, officers said. It ripped off 12 feet of guard rail on a boulevard near U.S. 101. Officers said he was released without bail.

Struck By Stone, Child's Eye Hurt

A 5-year-old youngster suffered an eye injury Saturday about 2:30 p. m. when she was struck by a stone while playing with other children in the Elm St. area, police reported.

Kimberly Adkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daner Adkins, 2216 Cleveland Ave., was being tended by Mrs. Mary Ann Shaw, 408 Elm St., while the child's parents were at work in a pottery, police said. Police were notified of the injury and Patrolman Orin C. Smith was dispatched to take the child to the City Hospital.

Meanwhile, Delbert Hull, 65, of 1165 Harker Ave., was treated at the Hospital about 8:40 p. m. Saturday after he was taken ill while on Market St. Patrolmen Leonard Richard and Paul Blevins reported they were driving through the Diamond when they observed Hull lying on the sidewalk, complaining of difficulty in breathing. They removed him to the hospital in a cruiser. The illness was diagnosed as asthma.

Steel Talks Resume, Abel Sees 'Progress'

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The United Steelworkers and the basic steel industry resume contract talks today in the shadow of a May 1 strike deadline.

One top negotiator, USW Secretary-Treasurer I. W. Abel, says he believes an agreement can be reached before that date.

Abel said in an interview in Washington Saturday, "If they (the industry) are as interested as they claim to be on reaching an agreement we can do it. All in all I think we are progressing."

He said that any talk now of extending the strike deadline is premature.

Nursing, Convalescent Home Planned Here

The one-story fireproof nursing and convalescent home shown above is scheduled to be erected on Armstrong Ln., just off St. Clair Ave., on the former Means property recently owned by the Beth Shalom organization.

Toney and Geraldine Adkins of 1907 Michigan Ave. will be owners and operators of the new establishment.

Tentative plans, Adkins said, call for an initial 60-bed home of expandable type construction, with 90 beds the ultimate goal. Both private and semi-private rooms will be available.

In addition to a dining and recreational area, the home will have a lounge, physical therapy room, occupational therapy, sewing room, library, beauty shop, staff dining room and chapel.

The remaining area of the building will be utilized for the administrative staff and service facilities. Adkins said ample paved parking space will be provided and the entire site landscaped.

At the completion of the 90-bed unit, he said the home will have a staff of more than 30 employees, "well above state requirements," and will offer 24-hour nursing care.

16th Parade Of Quartets Draws Capacity Audience

By CLARA HALL

A smooth quartet, headed for the top, highlighted the 16th annual Parade of Quartets of the East Liverpool SPEBSQSA Chapter Saturday night before a packed house at Westgate School.

The Imposters of Oak Park, Ill., put on a fine, effortless show of barbershop singing. Dressed as typical Southern gentlemen in the first part of the program, they sang nostalgic songs of the South, including "Carolina in the Morning" and "Darkness on the Delta."

For the second half, they appeared in grey tuxedos and offered a song of rollicking rhythm, "Standing On the Corner," and one in a contemporary vein, "Nevertheless I'm in Love With You." They drew in some comedy in "San Francisco" and "Undecided." The group is comprised of Ed Jensen, Bob Brock, Joe Warren and Harry Klepsteen.

A humorous number, "Please Mr. Columbus, Turn the Ship Around," featured the performance of The Four Encores of Elyria. They sang "The Halls of Ivy" in perfect barbershop style. Interference from the tenor added enjoyment to the supposedly lead solo of "Sweet Adeline." Glenn Gibson, Ray Neikirk, Ray Dever and Roger Blodgett make up this group.

Two excellent solos set off the selections presented by The Akro - Lads of the Warren and Akron Chapters. Don Clapp, tenor, offered an excellent rendition of "Just For You" and Dick Whiteman, bass, did the same with "You'll Never Walk Alone." Other members, who pitched in with a medley of smile songs, were Al Swanson and Bob Evans.

A hand-clapping exercise preceded the performance of The Apple Jacks from Uniontown, Pa. Their best number was "Twelfth Street Rag." They also did a good job on a four part melody with four different tunes and lyrics. They are Dusty Rhodes, Ray Rohn Jr., Andy Haky Jr. and Dave Wilkinson.

The Shortones of Beaver Valley added some comedy to their versions of "Old Model T" and

"Row, Row, Row." They also sang original lyrics to "It's Only a Shanty." The group is formed of Clark Wolf, former local resident, Max Burkett, Bill Flynn and Jack Leeper.

The Area 11 Chorus of the Johnny Appleseed District, comprised of chapters at Steubenville, St. Clairsville, Toronto and East Liverpool, sang several selections under the individual direction of Milton Stewart, George Cattrall and William Redmond. Their white shirts were set off by red rose sleeve garters.

Charles Beaver, president, introduced the master of ceremonies, Walter Kimbro, manager of the local Social Security administration office.

The finale was "Keep America Singing" when all the visiting quartets joined the Area Chorus.

Harold Driggs had charge of the ticket sale at the door assisted by a group of high school girls. Members of the Key Club served as ushers.

Don Schussler was parade chairman assisted by Don Wood, in charge of the stage; R. J. Moore, tickets; Beaver, program and advertising; and Wilbur Newman, treasurer.

Dean Manning supervised the afterglow held at St. Aloysius Parochial School Hall. The tables were decorated with barbershop place mats and Easter basket nut cups. Mrs. Wanda Schussler and Mrs. Nancy Beaver handled decorations.

A buffet lunch was served by women of the church.

Sam Wolfe was master of ceremonies for the program which included numbers by all the quartets.

Lisbon Session Set

LISBON — A variety of business will be on the agenda when the Village Board of Education meets Tuesday night at 7:30, according to Supt. Oliver Payne. There will be action on hiring four teachers and a discussion on purchase of a water meter for Memorial Stadium and replacement of class equipment at the high school.

Thieves Take Copper At Local Scrap Yard

Heavy copper cable valued between $600 and $700 was stolen from a building at the Caplan Iron and Scrap Yard on the River Rd., over the weekend, police were notified this morning.

Sam Caplan, owner, notified police at 7:30 a. m. that the thieves gained entrance by breaking out the glass in the front door and then crawling through. They apparently left the same way since the doors were locked when Caplan arrived, police said.

Thieves also forced a door at the Parsons Coal Co. at the foot of Jackson St. and took two trays containing 3/4 and 1/2-inch sockets and ratchets, police were notified.

Police were notified at 2:52 a. m. by Marian Congo, a truck driver, that he found a door on the east side of a building open, but that nothing appeared to be missing. A second call at 8:45 a. m. reported the missing tools, officers said.

Showers Scheduled Tonight And Tuesday

Showers are due in the area late tonight and Tuesday, the Ohio weatherman said.

It will be cloudy tonight and Tuesday, with slightly warmer temperatures, the forecaster said. The low tonight will be 40-46.

A bright spring sun warmed the area Sunday. The mercury hit 37 at 5 a. m. today in downtown East Liverpool. It stood at 32 at the same time in the suburbs.

About 15 years ago vacuum tubes served as memory units in computers. Then came transistors. Now microscopic electrical circuits printed on tiny chips of silicon on the job.

Chester Lists 3-Way Crash

No one was injured in a three-way traffic mishap Saturday night at Chester, police reported.

Autos driven by Richard Roy Chaney of Route 30, Chester, Sandra Lee Davis of New Cumberland R. D. 2 and Jennie M. Haught of Westfield Rd., East Liverpool, were involved in the crash Saturday at 7:45.

Chaney and Miss Davis had stopped for a traffic light at 6th St. and Carolina Ave. when Miss Haught's auto struck their vehicles from behind. Combined damage of $375 was estimated by Patrolman Audley Campbell, who investigated.

Miss Haught, who was cited for failure to have her vehicle under control, is scheduled to appear at a hearing Wednesday before Mayor Harry Abrams.

In another accident on the Chester Hill on Route 30, autos driven by Donald Murtha of Rochester and John Folkner of Rogers sideswiped at 8:40 p. m. Saturday.

Patrolman Campbell estimated $75 damage resulted to the Murtha auto and $150 to the Folkner vehicle. No charges were filed.

In the late 1800s one-third of all books were paperbound.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: The next time you fix spaghetti and meatballs, try broiling the meatballs instead of frying them.

One can broil at least 20 large meatballs at a time on a cookie sheet (the kind with four raised sides!)

The sauce can be prepared while the meatballs are broiling and when they are done, just scrape up the meat juices from the bottom of the cookie sheet (leaving the grease behind) and add to the sauce.

Add meatballs to the sauce in the last 15 minutes of cooking. CONCETTA WACHE.

True and great. I tried it. HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I line my refrigerator shelves with white lace plastic place mats. The lace permits circulation while keeping the shelf rods clean.

These mats are especially good under milk cartons or soft drink bottles and are easy to wash along with the dishes, then ready to put back on the shelves.

MRS. P. M. GOLDRICK.

This is about the most wonderful idea I have come across in a long time. Here's why:

Circulation is the answer to a refrigerator working properly. The lace mats allow perfect circulation to continue.

Also, because they are plastic, the mats may be laid in the bottom of your dishpan before putting in your dishes (so they will soak longer and the goo will come loose) and rinse quickly under your hot water faucet, given a quick shake and replace immediately.

They can be cut any size or shape to fit that particular space which your special need calls for. Such as milk cartons, those tiny jars that sometimes tip and fall over on the refrigerator spokes....

Many of you write that you line your shelves with foil, freezer paper, etc.

DON'T do this. Eventually it will ruin the motor. Besides, it cuts down the proper, free, flow of cold circulated air and it is not distributed evenly as it should be.

So I say to you, if you want to line the shelf where you keep your milk and spillable objects, then use those lace-type place mats. They're okay in my book and are the perfect answer.

And every bit of thanks to that doll, Mrs. Goldrick, for putting us wise to this. HELOISE.

PS: I just learned that those of you who have that damp-type refrigerator, that you can put lace type place mats in the bottom of your dehydrator and the excess moisture will drip through the lace and prevent slushy vegetables too!

Try that if you have a scrap left. I did. It's great. HC

DEAR HELOISE: It's so discouraging to mother, who has just cleaned house, for her small boys to walk in with loose bits of grass, dirt, gravel, etc., which falls out all over the floor and carpeting.

I solved this problem: Roll the cuff of the jeans UNDER (instead of up!) one turn (as deep as needed). The jeans not only look neater but the cuffs cannot gather all that mess.

MRS. CARL TOWNS.

DEAR HELOISE: My daughter loves to knit, and has just completed her sixteenth sweater!

She discovered, when putting the sweater together, that plastic hair roller picks work much better than pins or basting. The picks are easy to see.

Result: No more pricked fingers or pulled yarn. She also uses all leftover yarn for mittens or ear warmers so that none of the yarn is wasted.

MRS. WILLIAM E. BENNETT.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Terms Reached By 'Vindy,' Guild On New Contract

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—The American Newspaper Guild, satisfied with its contract settlement with the Youngstown Vindicator, must now stand by while the stereotypes and building service employees bargain with the newspaper.

The stereotypes have a bargaining session scheduled today. Settlement with the guild came Sunday after almost 20 hours of continuous bargaining. The guild's strike, called Aug. 18 by local 11, ANG, is one of the nation's longest against a newspaper. Bargaining talks were held off and on for 223 days.

The guild walked out in a dispute over a contract for 42 outside circulation employees. More than 450 newspaper employees were idled.

The tentative agreement gives the outside circulation men a 40-hour, five-day week and provides pay increases and fringe holidays, improved car allowances and a guild shop, the guild said.

In the meantime, the guild will keep its pickets at the Vindicator and continue to publish its newspaper, The Steel Valley News, which was started last Labor Day.

Contracts for the stereotypes and service employees have run out, but the unions are not on strike.

The Vindicator never stopped publishing during the strike, first in its 75-year history. Supervisory personnel put out a smaller, tabloid newspaper for over-the-counter sale.

Fiery Cross Lit At Negro's Home Near Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—A fiery cross was found Sunday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Roberts, the only Negro family living in a previously all-white neighborhood in suburban Oakley.

Roberts, 32, said he had no idea who put the cross there, and added he planned to remain in the neighborhood.

"We don't intend to sell or leave the neighborhood," Roberts said. "We have had no threats and have not been intimidated either in person, by telephone or mail since we bought the home."

Roberts, his wife, and their four children moved into the home a week ago. They had lived in another suburb.

"I didn't know whether we would be the only Negroes on the block or whether there were others," Roberts, a shipping clerk, said. "It was just that we needed the room and liked the house and so we bought the house."

Taxpayers Get Slight Break, If They Prove They Merit It

WASHINGTON (AP) — Uncle Sam has left the door ajar for those who face hardship in paying their income tax in full on April 15 — but the burden of proof rests on the taxpayer.

Further, he must convince the Internal Revenue Service that the hardship results from underwithholding from his pay check.

The IRS, in a special announcement:

Warned all taxpayers that their returns must be submitted by the April 15 deadline to avoid severe penalties under the law.

Urged taxpayers to pay the full amount due at that time if it is at all possible.

Recommended payment of as much as possible if full payment "would result in undue hardship, as distinguished from mere inconvenience."

Said those who do not pay in full will receive a bill for the unpaid balance.

Instructed those receiving such balance - due bills to "promptly write or visit the nearest Internal Revenue Service office to arrange payment" over what IRS describes as "a reasonable period of time." It added that full payment should be made "as quickly as possible."

Noted that interest at 6 percent will be charged on unpaid balances.

Many taxpayers face problems in paying their 1964 income tax because insufficient money had been withheld from their wages or salaries.

This is because when the two-stage tax reduction bill was passed last year the new withholding scale was put into effect at once on the basis of the full reduction which does not become effective until the tax bills for 1965. This was done primarily to inject more spendable income into the economy in 1964.

There was considerable publicity about this and many persons arranged to have employers increase sums withheld. And the IRS sent a notice to all employers pointing out the consequences of underwithholding and asked them to suggest that employees request adjustments in withholding.

Gun Victim Spits Out Bullet From Wound In Mouth

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—T. J. Culpepper, 34, went to the emergency room at St. Elizabeth Hospital Sunday with two complaints: A bad cough and a bullet hole through his upper lip.

There was no doubt about the shot in the mouth, which Culpepper later told police he suffered during an argument. Several of his teeth were shattered.

But there was no bullet marks inside the mouth.

While a doctor worked to stop the bleeding, the missing bullet was found. Culpepper coughed it up, the hospital reported.

Culpepper was in good condition at the hospital today, and police were investigating the shooting.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I have a very unusual problem and since you are responsible for it, in a way, I hope you will give me some help.

My wife resembles you. People always are coming up to her on the street, in the grocery, in the laundry, any place at all, and asking for advice.

She used to say, "You are mistaken. I'm not Ann Landers," and that would be the end of it. But lately she has been saying, "Tell me all the details and I'll try to help you."

These unhappy people hopefully pour out their personal problems and my wife has been getting an earful. Lately she's been telling folks what to do. I think that's going too far. What do you say? — MARRIED TO YOUR DOUBLE.

Dear Married: Thanks for the tip. Here is an open letter to all readers:

I do NOT counsel on the street, in grocery stores or in laundries.

If you think you see me, by all means say hello, but please don't ask me what to do about your lazy daughter-in-law or your six-martini husband. The best I can do "on the hoof" is suggest that you write me a letter.

Freeloaders' Haven

Dear Ann: We live in a city which has a famous hospital and clinic. My husband and I moved here two years ago and we like this city very much.

The first year we lived here 18 friends and relatives came to stay with us while they were going through the clinic or accompanying someone else. Last year we had 20 such guests. This year undoubtedly will be a record-breaker.

We have no guest room. My husband and I sleep in one bedroom and our two sons sleep in the second bedroom. This does not discourage our friends or relatives. They say, "We don't mind sleeping on the couch." Or, "All we want is your company. Hotels are so depressing."

We are sick of providing bed and board for freeloaders. I work part time in my husband's business and the extra laundry, grocery shopping and preparation of company meals is not only hard on my back but on my budget as well. How can I tell friends and relatives that we just can't have them here? — X. AWSTED.

Dear X: I recommend plain English — unless you can communicate better in another language.

If you were half as articulate with the folks who take advantage of you as you are when you gripe to me, there would be no problem.

Worse Than Dog Fight

Dear Ann: My husband, Bob, raises hunting dogs. Several months ago his brother, Al, asked for a dog and said he would pay him later when he had the money.

Last month the dog died suddenly. Al told Bob the dog must have had some defect. He asked for another dog. Bob said okay. When Bob left the room I asked my brother-in-law when he was going to pay for the first dog. He replied, "You don't think I'm going to pay for a dead dog, do you?"

I'm really burned up. This morning I told Bob his brother is a cheap jerk and not to give him another dog until he pays for the first one. He suggested that I mind my own business. What do you suggest? — BOILING BONNIE.

Dear Boil: A muzzle — for you. If your husband wants to avoid a brother fight (which can be far worse than a dog fight), stay out of it. It may not make sense to you financially but obviously it is important to your husband emotionally.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Panel Picked By President For VA Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, wanting to take a second look at plans to close 11 veterans hospitals, has named an eight-man panel to review the controversial situation. The group expects to start its study this week.

Johnson appointed the panel Saturday night and told it to report back to him by June 1, adding he will "promptly act on its recommendations."

E. Barrett Prettyman, retired chief judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, was named chairman. He said Sunday that "we should be moving before the week is out."

"We may have erred in the past, and we may err in the future," Johnson said. "We must be certain no veteran who needs medical attention is deprived of it by unwise action."

The plan to close the hospitals, 4 soldiers homes and 17 regional VA offices was announced Jan. 13 and immediately ran into congressional criticism. Veterans Administrator William J. Driver said an estimated total of $23 million would be saved by closing outmoded and inefficient facilities.

Johnson noted that conflicting evidence had been presented to congressional hearings on the closings.

"I must say they have raised some doubts in my mind about some of the facilities in the original order," he said.

Among those on the committee are the famous Boston heart specialist, Dr. Paul Dudley White, and J. William Harwick of the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn.

Other committee members are assistant Senate Democratic leader Russell B. Long of Louisiana; Rep. E. Ross Adair of Indiana, senior Republican member of the House Committee on Veterans Affairs; former Veterans Administrator John S. Gleason Jr.; and Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, former president of the American Red Cross.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

How To Break The Pound Barrier

Dieters, there will be times when you do not lose, reducing efforts to the contrary. An actual chart of weight losses drawn on graph paper would resemble rickety stairs.

Along about the sixth week there would be a protracted level line, indicating no weight loss for many weeks. This lull in losing is inevitable, so know that your reducing course is running true to form. Regard this period as nature's way of stabilizing your weight at a lower level. Stay with it!

IF AFTER four weeks you fail to resume losing, do something extra to break the pound barrier. Change the character of your diet. Protein has a stimulating effect on metabolism. Have one or two protein foods at each of your three meals. At breakfast have an egg, plus a second egg white, and only a half slice of toast. On alternate mornings have a small portion of lean meat with the egg.

At lunch have fish and a salad with cottage cheese, or a wedge of cheese. At dinner have a large serving of lean meat plus vegetables. Skip the bread and dessert. Use a minimum of salt, and leave off all sweets. It appears that a change in the character of your diet for a week or 10 days, then back to a mixed diet, is helpful for many reducers.

The rate of weight loss is determined by the difference between calories used and the number consumed. Calories cannot be safely cut too low. But with exercise you can burn more fuel. During a lull in reducing, exercise is particularly rewarding. Even though you do not lose by the scales, with exercise you will continue to lose inches and slim your measurements. Activities such as walking use the big muscles. Get out and see how spring is coming along. Walk a couple of miles a day, in good walking shoes.

ALSO, take 10 minutes of shape-ups, and bring in the principle of isometric contraction by holding the muscle contraction for a slow count of eight. Breathe normally.

Most important, keep your goal vividly before you. Move toward your goal in steps of setting near goals. One dieter succeeded by concentrating on the next seven pounds off. On reaching the seven-pound goal she rewarded herself with dinner out. She ordered a good-sized broiled steak, baked potato and a big salad — sure, with dressing. For dessert, cheese and coffee. In effect, she was still on her diet, but dining out was a treat.

This dieter figured that seven pounds off brought her halfway to the next smaller dress size. She is now down two and a half dress sizes, and 36 pounds lighter.

Dieters, set up near goals, and find ways to renew your enthusiasm. Change your pace, and your habit patterns, to add zest to slimming.

Funeral Rites Set

CLEVELAND (AP) — Funeral services for Cecil E. Van Syckle, 84, of suburban Rocky River, former superintendent of ore unloading docks for Republic Steel Corp., will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Klanke Funeral Home in Lakewood. He died Sunday at Fairview Park Hospital.

Boy Goes For Change And Bilks Woman, 80

An 80-year-old woman was cheated of $5 Sunday by a boy door-to-door salesman who offered to get change for her and never returned, police reported.

Mrs. Hattie Eoff, 710 Line St., was bilked of the cash about 11:45 a. m. by a boy between 7 and 11 who knocked on her door and offered to sell plastic flowers for $1, officers said.

When the woman said she only had a $5 bill, the boy offered to obtain change at a nearby store. Mrs. Eoff's daughter told police. Police were notified when the boy failed to return after 45 minutes.

Threats Described

Klan Probers Get Flood Of Volunteered Evidence

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Edwin E. Willis says unsolicited information has been pouring in for the congressional investigation for the Ku Klux Klan.

The Louisiana Democrat is chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities which announced the probe last week.

Willis, interviewed on the CBS radio and television program "Face the Nation," said much of the help is in the form of letters from businessmen who offer to detail their experience with Klan threats.

Willis said the investigation — launched after President Johnson called the Klan "a hooded society of bigots" — will be divided into three phases.

The first, now under way, is the gathering of facts. It will be followed by hearings and then drafting of legislation.

Other legislation also is in the offing.

In an interview with The Associated Press, Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach said he hopes to have his proposals ready for the President within two weeks.

The attorney general said he expects them to be aimed at giving the federal government jurisdiction over the sort of activities attributed to the Klan.

In other weekend developments concerning the Klan: — The Americans for Democratic Action went on record in opposition to the probe by the Committee on Un-American Activities.

—Mrs. C.L. Wilkins of Birmingham accused President Johnson of prejudicing the trial of her son, one of four Klan members accused in the Alabama slaying of Viola Liuzzo, 39, a civil rights worker from Detroit.

She wrote Johnson that his announcement of the arrests of Collier Leroy Wilkins and three other Klan members made it impossible for a fair trial. She said the four "were branded guilty before the nation by the President of the United States."

—Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., imperial wizard of the Klan, predicted that "soon we are going to have revolution in this country."

Speaking Sunday night to more than 2,000 persons near Morganton, N.C., he said the Civil Rights Act of 1964 was supposed to halt street demonstrations and move their grievances to the courts. "But it has not been so," he declared.

Kenyon Students Hold Protest On Road Plan

GAMBIER, Ohio (AP) — About 100 high-spirited Kenyon College students conducted an hour-long demonstration here Sunday to protest plans to cover an unused well for a highway project.

Dr. Edward Lund, Kenyon president, described the demonstration as "hijinks brought about by the spring weather." He said the demonstration consisted of a singalong and there was no violence.

Pact Averts Walkout By Glass Union

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — A threatened strike against 95 per cent of the nation's glass container industry was averted Sunday when union negotiators agreed on a new three-year contract.

The new contract will give some 8,000 skilled workers an estimated package increase of 50 cents an hour.

An 11-day walkout by about 32,000 production and maintenance workers ended March 28 when the union accepted a three-year contract providing a package increase of 34 1/2 cents an hour.

The skilled, or operating, employees' contract expired last Wednesday but they continued working on a day-to-day basis while negotiators hammered out a new contract.

Midland Settles Uniontown Question In 92-80 Victory

Gengarellas Take Third Straight Jr. Crown Before 1,800

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

The question Can Midland beat Uniontown? was answered, and quite convincingly, Saturday night in the finals of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Junior Tournament here.

A record crowd for the tournament of over 1,800 fans jammed every corner of Memorial Auditorium to see the invincible Midland team turn back Uniontown, 92-80, and give Gengarella's their third straight Junior Tourney championship.

BOTH TEAMS floored their regular starting lineups for the title contest to give the sponsoring Nonpareil Club its finest championship game in the 18-year history of the tourney.

The Pennsylvania state champions lost to Uniontown in the 1964 WPIAL finals and waited a whole year to get revenge. The meeting between Midland and Uniontown originally was expected to have taken place last month in the WPIAL finals in Pittsburgh, but that game never was played since Aliquippa came along to upset Uniontown.

So the game that Midland fans had long awaited unfolded Saturday night. The two Western Pennsylvania powerhouses battled to a 40-40 tie at halftime.

UNIONTOWN, playing under the Riverview Florists banner, stayed with Midland longer than any other team had all season, but a great second half by Midland's super star, Sim Hill, put Gengarellas in front 67-61 at the end of the third quarter.

Midland was able to battle through the fourth quarter on an eight- to 10-point lead.

Gengarellas trailed in the first half at one time 16-5, but class began to tell later in the first quarter and Midland cut the lead to a point, 20-19, at the end of the first quarter.

THE SCORE seesawed in the second period and the first 16 minutes wound up in a dead-lock.

The 6-5 Hill, who walked away with an armful of trophies, battered the hoop for 12 points in the third quarter and six more in the final period to lead Midland's drive.

Hill, the unanimous choice for most valuable player, hit from inside and out to pour in 15 field goals and four fouls to finish with 34 points. He had scored 35 in the semi-final game and in four tournament contests produced 121 points, giving him the high point total for the three-day tourney.

RON BROWN, who enjoyed a great tournament, dropped in 20 points and grabbed his share of rebounds.

Brent Lake, Mr. Outside of the Midland squad, fired his pet jump shot for 18 points, while Norm Vanlier quarterbacked and other fine game and added nine points to the attack while setting up his teammates for many easy buckets.

Riverview attempted to counter with such standouts as Pat Yates and Ray Parsons, who led the way with 22 and 20 points, respectively, but Midland's all-around team effort snuffed out the hopes of Uniontown in the same manner the Leopards had rolled over 26 opponents and to a state championship during the regular season.

RIVERVIEW FLORISTS made it to the championship plateau by the forfeit route when Cooperman & Woods of Pittsburgh, which included a lineup of South Hills Catholic and Canevin talent, did not appear for the semi-final contest. The team was committed to play in another tournament Saturday night in Pittsburgh, according to Nonpareil Club officials.

Gengarellas gained the finals by turning back a strong Auto Body Supply team, which showed a roster of Schenley, Westinghouse and Peabody stars.

Ken Durrett, the most talented sophomore in the Pittsburgh area, put on a 29-point performance, but it wasn't enough to overcome the 35-point show by Hill and the 26-point effort of Brown.

A tight contest for most of the first half, Midland went in front 44-35 at halftime. Auto Body made one attempt to catch up in the third period, but the champs maintained the lead, holding a 44-35 margin at the end of three periods.

Gibson flipped in 18 points and Paul Bloom of Peabody added 16 for the Auto Body five.

MIDLAND HIGH'S state championship team won another title Saturday as the squad is shown gathered around their trophy after winning the third straight Nonpareil Club Junior Tournament crown for Gengarellas. The Midland entry handed Riverview Florists (Uniontown) a 92-80 defeat in the finals.

Grace Squad Rallies To Win Tourney

Grace U. P. eked out a 26-27 win over St. John's to capture the 1965 Church Basketball Tournament Saturday night at the YMCA.

Trailing, 11-6, at halftime Grace outscored St. John's, 22-16 in the second half to snare the title.

Rick Steffen was the hero for the champs. He wound up with 17 points but 14 of those came in the second half. Bill Montgomery scored 19 of his team's 27 points but in a losing effort. Grace gained the finals by defeating Chester Christian 32-31 in a double overtime while St. John's tripped St. Stephen's, 28-25 to win a spot in the finals.

Potter Runners Will Open Today

East Liverpool's track team was scheduled to open its season today at Patterson Field facing Western Beaver.

Coach Norm Six's team also will be busy later this week traveling to Steubenville Big Red Thursday.

The Potters have 11 lettermen returning but one veteran, Tom Leon, will not be able to compete because of a leg injury. Leon was a high jumper.

Among the sprinters returning are Ralph Smith, Denny Burke, Mike McFarlane and Pat Chema.

Jon Pilgrim, who starred on the cross country team, is being counted on heavily in the distance events. Bob Lane is returning in the hurdles while Steve Williams and Paul Spooner will be competing in the high jump.

In the weight events the Potters will have Mike Snowden and Bob Woods.

Following is the 1965 schedule:
Apr. 5—Western Beaver, home
Apr. 7—Steub. Big Red, away
Apr. 20—Massillon, away
Apr. 24—Struthers Relay, away
Apr. 29, United, home
May 1—Cambridge Relays,
May 7—County meet, Salem
May 10—Western Beaver, home
May 15—District Meet, Bellaire
May 22—Regional Meet,
May 29—State Meet, Columbus

Oak Glen Track Team Posts Its First Victory

Paced by a quartet of runners, Oak Glen won its first dual track meet in two seasons by opening over Steubenville Central, 95½-54½ Saturday at Wellsburg in a Steel Valley Conference meet.

Oak Glen swept all of the relay events and most of the scoring was done by four members of the squad.

Marvin Six won the discus with a toss of 104 feet, 7 inches was on the winning mile relay team and second in the high jump.

Ed Clark won the pole vault clearing the bar at 8 feet, 6 inches, captured first in the low hurdles in 23.9 and ran a leg of the shuttle relay.

Jack Ring came home first in the mile in 4:42.7, placed second in the 400 and ran on the winning mile relay team.

Jim Gracie captured the 440-yard dash in 53.7 and finished second in the 100 and 220.

Rich Everly won the broad jump for Oak Glen going a distance of 18 feet, 6 inches.

Pat Maddon and Buster Yannon, the all-state football star, were double winners for Steubenville. Maddon won the high hurdles and 880-yard run while Yannon took the 100 in 10.3 and 220 in 23.6.

Celtics Win First Playoff Over 76ers

BOSTON (AP) — "War is hell, no matter how it's fought," said Bill Russell, the sweat of the first battle still glistening on his forehead. His war is named Wilt Chamberlain.

Boston's playoff perennials had just beaten Philadelphia 108-98 Sunday in the National Basketball Association Eastern Division finals. The Celtics did it with their trademark defense and hot cornermen.

Capt. Russell, however, was stating a general sentiment that the giant shadow the 7-foot-1 Chamberlain casts across this best-of-7 series spells a long, fierce struggle.

The second game is in Philadelphia Tuesday night.

"Every game against Chamberlain is three days' work," Russell said. "He's always been so tough to play there's no talking about degrees."

While Russell fought Wilt to a standoff on the backboards, Chamberlain scored 33 points, had 31 rebounds and three assists. Russell's figures were 11, 32 and six.

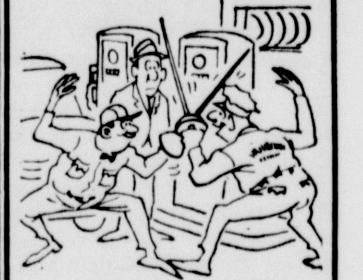

Boston's veteran cornerman, Tom Heinsohn, led the winners with 23 points. Counting John Havlicek, who played more up front than in the backcourt, the Celtics' forwards outscored their Philadelphia counterparts 60-29.

Syracuse University's spring football roster lists 21 lettermen.

Auto Body Supply In Repeat Performance At Wellsville

Downs Shaffer's 108-99 For Title

Auto Body Supply of East Liverpool became the second team in the history of the Wellsville Jaycee Tournament to win two consecutive titles after posting a 108-99 victory over Shaffer's Trucking in the championship battle Saturday night at Beacom Memorial Gym.

Only Shaffer's had won the title two years running when the Trucking firm captured the 1962 and 1963 crowns.

No other team could outscore the Auto Body five which fielded a well-rounded combination of ex-Youngstown U. and present Alliance College stars. In its last three tourney games, Auto Body went over the 100 point mark each time.

THE EAST Liverpool entry won the title a year ago defeating World Book and Bible Store in the finals.

Red Jones, the Little All-American guard from Youngstown U., poured in 31 points to lead the Auto Body attack while Jim McCoy of Farrell and Marquette fame followed with 27.

Big Frank Grannett, the 7-1 skyscraper from Alliance College, who was named most valuable player in the tourney, wound up with 21 points while his teammate Bill Mandy tallied 17.

GRANNETT, who led Alliance to the NAIA playoffs at Kansas City this year, is scheduled to fly to Los Angeles later this week for a tryout with the Lakers.

Auto Body led most of the way in defending its championship and owned a 14-point margin with about four minutes remaining in the contest.

SHAFER'S with a lineup of former Kent State and Akron U. players, was paced by Bob Greene's 29 points while Bill Reynolds added 22.

In the consolation game, World Book & Bible handed Uncle Pete's a 93-75 setback. Carl Anderson led the victory with 19 points while Jim Fuqua dropped in 17 and Bob Baker 15.

Ray (Pick) Rolley flipped in 27 points in a losing effort.

WHILE Grannett was named to the most valuable player in the tournament, Jones of Auto Body, pulled down high point honors with 78 for the tourney.

The best foul shot in the week long event was Skeeter Wallace of Shaffer's with 14 of 15.

The trophy for the individual high for one game went to ex-Wellsville great Vince Giles who poured in 37 points in one contest.

Auto Body dominated the all-tourney team with five players gaining the honor. The all-tourney unit included Grannett, Mandy, McCoy, Jones and Mickey Yugovich of Auto Body, Greene, Maddox and Dennis of Shaffer's, Ted Robinson of Uncle Pete's and Giles, Anderson and Baker of World Book.

An award for the best comic team in the tourney went to the SOI team which was eliminated in the first round.

Baylor's Knee Injured, Star To Miss Playoffs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Elgin Baylor, No. 1 forward of the Los Angeles Lakers, was reported resting comfortably today after doctors removed part of his left kneecap, torn in a freak accident Saturday night.

The injury will prevent Baylor, who scored more than 2,000 points this year for the fourth time in his pro career, from helping his team in the National Basketball Association post-season playoffs, a hospital spokesman said. But if the knee rehabilitate the knee for his return to the Lakers next season," Dr. Robert Kerlan said.

Saturday, four minutes into the opener of the best-of-7 series with Baltimore, Baylor leaped into the air for one of his deadly jump shots. Suddenly he dropped to the floor in pain and limped from the game.

Sunday afternoon doctors removed the uppermost layer of fibrous matter of his kneecap and a tendon attached to it.

Chance Hit By Liner, Forced To Leave Field

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Stay loose, Don Drysdale. It's open season on Cy Young Award winners.

Dean Chance, 1964 recipient of baseball's top pitching prize, is taking his lumps — literally — this spring in exhibition play.

Sandy Koufax and Whitey Ford, the 1963 and 1961 winners, respectively, have come in for more than their share of training camp troubles.

Of the last four pitchers to capture the award, only Drysdale has managed to stay both physically fit and effective against the hitters.

Chance, the Los Angeles Angels' brilliant 20-game winner, was knocked out of the box by a line drive Sunday — for the second time in the last two weeks — after facing only four hitters in his club's 6-0 loss to the San Francisco Giants.

The Angel ace, appearing in relief in the eighth inning, was clipped in the back of his right leg by Willie Mays' line smash and taken out of the game. Chance was sidelined several days last month after being struck on his pitching arm by a shot hit by Vic Roznovsky of the Chicago Cubs.

The right-hander minimized Sunday's injury. "This is nothing," he said while an ice pack was applied to the leg. "I don't know why I was lifted. I wanted to stay in there and pitch."

The Chance mishap followed on the heels of news that an arthritic elbow condition threatens to make a "once-a-week" pitcher of Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers' southpaw ace. Koufax said Saturday he will "learn to live with" the elbow trouble.

Drysdale, who took the Cy Young Award in 1962 with a 25-9 mark and won 18 games last year, has been strong in his exhibition appearances.

Ford has been hit freely in three of five training tests for the New York Yankees after a winter shoulder operation.

Tests Urged Before Buying A Boat

By JOHN BOHANNAN
About this time every year we're amazed at the number of persons who buy power boats without trying them out. Many are purchased on eye appeal alone.

The new skippers apparently assume that the boats will float. But will they perform? The smart buyer will put a boat, or at least a sister ship of the same power and design, to the test before handing over his money.

Take the boat out in the open water where you have plenty of room to maneuver. See how well she answers the helm and holds course at various engine speeds.

SLOW SPEED operation will show how easily she can be docked. With this in mind, try out the reverse gear and see how she responds.

We recall trying out one new model in which the best performance was at about three-quarter throttle. At top speed, it was impossible to hold her on course without constant correcting, and at low speeds she was too slow in her reactions to the helm.

You will want to know about performance bugs like this before buying.

Try a variety of turns — wide, medium and tight — and various tachometer readings. Does she bank properly, staying in the groove, then leveling off smoothly?

One highly-touted boat we tested last summer would go into a lateral skid when the helm was put hard over at high speed, then she would dig in with a hard jerk, the outboard engine would load down abruptly and the unwinding process was painfully slow and uncertain.

The fault was in the bottom design. So much accent had been put on lateral stability that the hull wouldn't bank enough on the turns.

The same acceleration tests. From a standing start, open up the throttle and see what happens.

In older designs, you'll find the bow will rise suddenly, then level off as the hull reaches planing speed. Newer designs will rise uniformly fore and aft and remain comparatively level at all throttle settings.

AVOID A BOAT which rides with the bow high all the time. This indicates an imbalance between weight and planing surface. In outboards, this usually can be corrected by changing the adjustment of the lower unit so the propeller stream is directed at a lower angle. Stern trim tabs sometimes will bring an outdrive or an inboard to a level plane.

At the other extreme are some boats with a tendency to bury the bow. In outboards, the fault usually can be corrected by adjusting the lower unit angle so the propeller is farther away from the transom. A nose-burying inboard may have a hook in the bottom, or require a major movement of weight aft.

No power boat test is complete without taking her out in rough water. Will she meet seas head-on without pounding? Does her bow flatten the spray or does she take solid water aboard? How does she handle downwind? Does she hold course or does she tend to yaw and broach to?

If you're buying a larger boat, you'll want to check the amount of roll and pitch in heavy seas.

Questions And Answers
Q. — Is there any quick way of pinpointing the performance characteristics of small sailboats?

A. — Yes. Most of them are one-design racing classes, and the characteristics of these classes are widely known. For example, Lightnings and Highlanders often double as family sailboats because they are relatively roomy and stable.

Q. — Can a river-type houseboat be used safely in open water?

A. — No. High cabin sides make a big target for the wind. With the shoal draft of these boats, beam alone is relied on for stability. That's not enough offshore.

Slammin' Snead Wins Greensboro

By KEN ALTYA

Associated Press Sports Writer
GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — "These young fellows," scoffed Sam Snead from the vantage point of some 52 years, "just aren't ready yet."

He didn't name any names — names like Arnold Palmer or Jack Nicklaus, for example — and a broad smile creased his wrinkled old face after his victory in the $70,000 added Greensboro Open.

But the faded and feared Slammin' Sam of another golfing era took definite note. In his joshing fashion, that this was the last warmup before the Masters, the biggest of them all.

"Those odds on me oughta go 'way down now," Sam observed, "Say from 20-1 to about 19-1."

The odds will be much lower on Palmer and Nicklaus, the co-favorites. But old Sam, who will be after his fourth title, must be given some consideration after his impressive, five-stroke triumph Sunday that made him the oldest man ever to win a PGA tourney. It was his eighth victory in the Greensboro event, sometimes called "The Sam Snead Open," since 1938. And he did it in a breeze.

By shooting sub-70 rounds four times, Snead posted a winning total of 273, five better than his three nearest pursuers — Billy Casper, Phil Rodgers and Jack McGowan.

Now he moves to Augusta, Ga., and the Masters starting Thursday, hoping "I keep putting like I have here and the rest of my game picks up a little."

By winning the $11,000 top prize he brought his earnings in 25 years here to more than $41,000.

Snead, opening with a three-under-par 68 for the 7,000-yard Sedgefield County Club course, followed with a 69 that gave him the co-lead with Bill Casper. On Saturday his 68 put him two shots in front of Labron Harris Jr. A final 68 Sunday completed the rout.

Rodgers, Casper and McGowan each won $4,733. Then came Harris in fifth place at 279 for $3,200.

British Open champion Tony Lema had a 67 finish for 280 and sixth place to win $2,900.

Gary Player shot 66 for a 283 finish. He tied for 14th with Arnold Palmer, defending Masters champ who closed with 67, his fourth sub-70 round in five tournaments this year.

Doctors Aren't Certain Of Koufax' Pitching Arm

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Specialists peering at the inflamed pitching elbow of Los Angeles Dodger star Sandy Koufax discount the possibility he was injured in an unfortunate base slide last season.

"It's not something that developed overnight," Koufax's doctor said Sunday. "The joint is filling with fluid."

"He's had an area of his body under stress and strain for a considerable time. It's been a gradual process."

Koufax's own diagnosis is more succinct: "I've got arthritis."

"It started to bother me last year," the 29-year-old southpaw explained gloomily. "Maybe I'm getting old. Elbow trouble is something I'll learn to live with."

Koufax was on his way to winning his second straight Cy

Young Award when he jammed the same elbow in a second-base slide last August. The injury sidelined him for the rest of the season, but Manager Walter Alton thought it had recovered and let him lead the Dodgers' pitchers in spring work with 30 innings.

Then last Tuesday he hurled a full nine innings and by Wednesday morning he couldn't straighten his left arm more than 45-degrees without excruciating pain and stiffness, he said.

Team physician, Dr. Robert Kerlan, refuses to be optimistic about Koufax returning to a full pitching load.

"We're trying to reduce the irritation and keep it at a minimum," Kerlan says. "It may be some time before we know anything definite."

Q. Should the Dodge Boys raise the price of the POLARA since everybody already thinks it costs more than it does?

A. Certainly not! It's a lot better business to clinch those sales when buyers get the pleasant surprise of the Polara's low price. How did everybody get that higher price idea in the first place? Well, they see the Polara cruising around town and it looks high price. Maybe they find out that its standard engine delivers about 30 more horsepower than standard Galaxie and Impala engines. Maybe they find out it's a bigger car and about a quarter ton heavier . . . two reasons why Polara gives a much smoother ride. Why not stop in at your Dodge Boys showroom, test drive the Polara, and be pleasantly surprised.

You'll also be pleasantly surprised at the low price of the DART and CORONET.

HERE'S HOW DODGE'S 5-YEAR/50,000-MILE ENGINE AND DRIVE TRAIN WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1965 cars for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings. REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty — change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence for this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

The price surprise of 1965-DODGE POLARA See it now at your Dodge Boys showroom

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—What is the best way of keeping moth balls in a drawer or trunk?
A.—Instead of scattering loosely with the clothing and other articles, make up a few tubes from mesh cloth, such as cheesecloth, slip the balls inside, and tie the cloth between each one. This makes for easier and less messy handling.

Q.—How can I remove heat marks from table tops?
A.—Rub them with a hard paraffin wax candle, then cover with blotting paper and press with a warm iron. Repeat, if necessary. Afterward, rub well with a soft cloth to restore the finish.

Q.—How can I make a good job of cleaning enameled woodwork?
A.—Try using a mixture of one cup kerosene, one cup vinegar, and a half-cup water, shaking this up thoroughly in a

Junior Editors Quiz on SPIDER'S WEB

QUESTION: How does a spider spin its web from one object to another?

ANSWER: Under the spider's abdomen are a group of little organs, the spinnerets. These connect with silk glands inside the body. To spin its web, the spider presses the spinnerets down on some object and squeezes out silk in liquid form which hardens in the air, forming a delicate thread which can be either dry or sticky. They can spin a number of fine threads in this way or combine them into a stronger one. Webs are made in a number of ways. We illustrate that of the orb spider. This spider will perch in some likely spot and press one of its legs to the spinnerets, drawing out a long sticky single thread (1). Air currents will blow this around until the sticky end attaches itself to something else. Then the spider fastens its end, passes over the line with more thread to strengthen it, and then goes to the middle where it fastens the thread, drops down and fastens another. It will keep coming back to the center carrying new dry cables (2) until there is a strong foundation. Then the spider starts from the center and begins to carry spirals of sticky thread around in which insects will be caught. It attaches a long cable to the center and waits (3). When the cable vibrates, the trap is working.

FOR YOU TO DO: Guess the meaning of the little picture at lower right. Is the spider trying to catch insects in the air? No, this is a spiderling, or tiny, newly hatched spider. It climbs up somewhere, spins a single thread and lets go. The thread carries it like a balloon to some new place where it can start spidering on its own.

Larry Jenno of Chattanooga, Tenn., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.
